Containing the Freſheſt Advices, Foreign and Domeſtic.

PERTH-AMBOY, February 15, 1764.

The SPEECH of his Excellency WILLIAM FRANKLIN, Eſq; Captain-General, Governor and Commander in Chief in and over His Majeſty's Province of New-Jerſey, and Territories thereon depending in America, Chancellor and Vice Admiral in the ſame, &c.

Gentlemen of the Council, and Gentlemen of the General Aſſembly,

AT your laſt Seſſions it was thought proper to poſtpone complying with the Requiſition of His Majeſty's General, until the Royal Pleaſure ſhould be ſignified, and the Determinations of the other Colonies, with regard to the Meaſure propoſed, be made known. I ſhall now give you all the Satisfaction in my Power on both theſe Heads.---By a Letter from the Right Honourable the Earl of HALIFAX, Secretary of State, I have received His Majeſty's Orders, "earneſtly to recommend to you, forthwith to make Proviſion for enabling me to call out a ſufficient Number of the Militia, or to raiſe ſuch a reaſonable Number of Troops, as, from the actual State of the Indian War, the Commander in Chief of the King's Forces in North-America ſhall think neceſſary; and to employ them not only in defending and protecting the Lives and Properties of His Majeſty's Subjects on the Frontiers of this Government, but alſo in acting offenſively againſt the Indians, at ſuch Places, and in ſuch Manner, as the ſaid Commander in Chief ſhall direct.---And His Majeſty truſts that the Legiſlature of this Government, from their Zeal and Affection for His Service, as well as from a juſt Regard to the Safety and Welfare of the Colony, will readily and chearfully concur in exerting themſelves upon this important Occaſion, to the End that His Majeſty's Subjects in North-America may peaceably enjoy the Fruits of the many glorious Succeſſes obtained there by His Majeſty's victorious Arms during the late War, and the extenſive Advantages ſecured to them by the late Peace."---

---As to the Conduct of the other Colonies on this intereſting Occaſion, the Aſſembly of Pennſylvania, I am informed, chearfully and immediately voted the whole Number of Troops required of that Province. But the Aſſemblies of the New-England Governments, it ſeems, not thinking themſelves ſo nearly concerned in the War, have thought proper to poſtpone their Determinations on this Matter till March. The Expediency, however, of having a conſiderable Body of Troops to take the Field early in the Spring, ſuppoſing the Indians inclinable either to Peace or War, is ſo forcibly repreſented in a Letter I laſt Night received from General GAGE, and which ſhall be communicated to you, that I think you cannot but come into the ſame Sentiments, and act accordingly.

The Cauſe of the preſent Defection among the Indians, you likewiſe at your laſt Sitting intimated a Deſire to be informed of. The many and various Opinions which were then circulated on that Head, bore ſuch evident Marks of being founded on Conjecture only, that I could not think any of them worthy your Attention. But I have ſince received an Account of a Conference held by Sir WILLIAM JOHNSON with a numerous Body of Indians in September laſt, wherein Sir WILLIAM (who muſt be ſuppoſed to have the beſt Information) ſays, that the Indians, "without any Notice or Provocation, fell upon our Traders," &c.---But I refer you to the Conference itſelf, which I ſhall order to be laid before you.---It does not appear that even the Indians themſelves alledge, or ſo much as inſinuate, that the Engliſh had by any Offence whatever provoked the late Outrages. On the contrary, one of their Speakers tells Sir WILLIAM, "the Seneca Warriors had owned, that their Sachems did not act right, that the Onondagoes had wiſe Men to guide them, but They had none, which was the Cauſe of the preſent Troubles."

Matters being thus circumſtanced, the Neceſſity of ſending an armed Force into the Indian Country, to bring them to a right Senſe of their perfidious Conduct, is moſt evidently apparent. Indians, in general, are a warlike People from their Infancy. They ever entertain a thorough Contempt for the Nation who will make Peace without obtaining Satisfaction for Injuries ſuffered by the War. When that happens to be the Caſe, they ſeize the firſt Opportunity of renewing their Hoſtilities. A recent Inſtance of this we have in the Creek Nation; who being invited to the late Congreſs held with the Southern Indians, accepted the Invitation, received the King's Forgiveneſs for their former Offences, entered into a Treaty of Friendſhip and Alliance, partook of the Preſents ſent by His Majeſty, and ſoon after deſtroyed a Number of the Back Inhabitants of South-Carolina. In ſhort, to obtain a ſolid and durable Peace with Indians, we muſt firſt make them feel the Miſeries of War.

I have therefore, Gentlemen of the General Aſſembly, the fulleſt Reliance on the Aſſurances you gave me at your laſt Sitting, of complying with the General's Requiſition. By going chearfully into this reaſonable and neceſſary Meaſure, you will confirm the favourable Sentiments His Majeſty already entertains of the People of this Province, and in the moſt effectual Manner provide for their Security.

The Militia, who were draughted for the Protection of the Frontiers, are, ſince your laſt Seſſions, relieved by the Troops raiſed for that Purpoſe.---The People have, during the Winter, remained at their reſpective Habitations, and met with no Diſturbances from the Enemy; but as the Spring advances, they are apprehenſive of freſh Depredations.

Gentlemen of the Council, and Gentlemen of the General Aſſembly,

I think it proper at this time to mention to you, That ſome People in Pennſylvania having, contrary to the common Principles of Humanity, murdered, in cool Blood, a Number of friendly Indians, who had long lived peaceably among the Inhabitants of that Province, in the Manner that the Indians at Brotherton have reſided among us; and having alſo, in Contempt of the Government, which had taken them under its Protection, threatened the Deſtruction of other Indians remaining there, tho' they had given the ſtrongeſt Proofs of their Attachment to the Britiſh Nation; I did, at the Requeſt of Governor PENN, grant a Paſſport for their ſafe Conduct through this Province, in their Way to Sir WILLIAM JOHNSON. They proceeded as far as Amboy, but being refuſed a Paſſage through the Government of New-York, they are ſince returned to Philadelphia. A ſmall Number of them, who were well recommended to me, are, with my Permiſſion, placed near Woodbury, I having received Aſſurances that the Townſhip will be put to no Charge for their Support. The principal Inhabitants there have given them a friendly Reception; and I truſt that there is not a Perſon in this Province, but has a juſt Abhorrence of the unmanly Behaviour of thoſe lawleſs Rioters of Pennſylvania.---To be ardently inclined to have the Indians now at open War with us ſeverely chaſtiſed for their Perfidy, is highly commendable; yet, ſurely, not only Humanity, but ſound Policy, and common Senſe, dictate that we ſhould give all the Encouragement and Protection in our Power to thoſe who ſhew themſelves our Friends at ſuch a Juncture.

Frequent Meetings of the Legiſlature I well know to be attended with Inconvenience to your private Affairs. It is therefore my fixed Intention never to call you together but when the publick Service makes it neceſſary. Perhaps the going at this time into the Conſideration of the current Buſineſs of the Year, may prevent the Occaſion of a Seſſions at an inconvenient Seaſon: If this ſhould be your Opinion, you may depend that my Concurrence will not be wanting.

To his Excellency
WILLIAM FRANKLIN, Eſq;
Captain General, Governor, and Commander in Chief in and over His Majeſty's Province of Nova Cæſarea, or New-Jerſey, and Territories thereon depending in America, Chancellor, and Vice Admiral in the ſame, &c.
The humble ADDRESS of the REPRESENTATIVES of the ſaid Province, in GENERAL ASSEMBLY convened.

May it pleaſe your EXCELLENCY,

WE, His Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Repreſentatives of New-Jerſey, in General Aſſembly convened, have deliberately conſidered the Matters recommended in your Excellency's Speech, and found it neceſſary to go into ſome Preparations for the general Service.

In the original Settlement of this Province, great Circumſpection and Care was uſed to gain and preſerve the Friendſhip of the Indian Natives; their Lands were, from time to time, fairly and openly purchaſed, to their general Satisfaction; this conciliated their Affection, and for a long Courſe of Time they were eminently ſerviceable to the new Settlers; and ſince the Beginning of their Hoſtilities, leſt ſome among them ſhould think any Part of our Lands remained unpurchaſed, Care was taken, at the Treaty of Eaſton, in 1758, to obtain, for a valuable Conſideration, a general Releaſe for all the Lands in this Province, ſuch Parts only excepted, as were reſerved for the Uſe of thoſe Indians that inclined to live under the Protection of this Government: This was done, and the Money paid in open Council, and their Approbation univerſally expreſſed.

Such therefore being the Circumſtance of this Province, with regard to the Indians, it became a Matter of Aſtoniſhment to us, that any Conduct of theirs ſhould give Reaſon to fear their Intentions reſpecting us. And whether they had actually any Deſign upon this Province or not, their Hoſtilities in the Neighbourhood of our Frontier, and in one doubtful Inſtance over the Line, were Inducements to place a Frontier Guard of Two Hundred Men, for the Winter paſt. The continuing this Guard, we believe, might be Security for our ſmall Frontier; but as their Perfidy to the neighbouring Governments ſeems to require Chaſtiſement, and the Operations to make a future Peace effectual calls for the united Force of the Colonies, we have now paſſed a Bill for raiſing the Number of Men mentioned in the General's Letters, on Condition a Majority of the Eaſtern Colonies [‡] ſhould come into the Requiſition, concurring, that as we can neither rank among the moſt able, nor are moſt expoſed by our Situation, the making this Proviſion, by which our Levies may be as ſoon in the Field as any of the Eaſtern Colonies, is coming up to the Demand of His Majeſty, by the Secretary of State and the General.

Whilſt we are thus preparing for bringing perfidious Savage Violators of public Faith to a Senſe of their Intereſt, we would by no means be underſtood as including Reſentment againſt all Indians. Experience ſhews, as your Excellency juſtly obſerves, that there are among them, notwithſtanding the general Corruption of the Tribes, ſome that have diſtinguiſhed themſelves by a long and ſteady Attachment to the Engliſh.

Such there are among us; theſe demand our Protection; Juſtice to the original Proprietors, whoſe Lands we purchaſed and occupy------the Faith of the Government, the Proofs of their Fidelity, require it; and we have a well grounded Confidence in our Conſtituents, that no Occaſion will be given (by any Act of theirs) to brand them with the Loſs of their diſtinguiſhing Faculties; nor plunge into a Conduct that, beſides incurring the Penalties of Government, tends to baniſh Juſtice from the World, ſtains the Chriſtian Name, and ſtamps Diſgrace upon human Nature, by puniſhing the Innocent for what the Guilty only ſhould ſuffer.

February 24, By Order of the Houſe,
1764. ROBERT OGDEN, Speaker.

To JOHN PENN, Eſq;
Lieutenant Governor of the Province of PENNSYLVANIA, &c.
The ADDRESS of the People called QUAKERS in the ſaid Province.

May it pleaſe the GOVERNOR,

WE acknowledge thy kind Reception of our Application for Copies of the two Papers preſented to thee by ſome of the Frontier Inhabitants of this Province, on the 6th and 13th Inſtant, which we have peruſed and conſidered, and find ſeveral Parts thereof are evidently intended to render us odious to our Superiors, and to keep up a tumultuous Spirit among the inconſiderate Part of the People.

We therefore requeſt thy favourable Attention to ſome Obſervations which we apprehend neceſſary to offer, to aſſert our Innocence of the falſe Charges, and unjuſt Inſinuations, thus invidiouſly propagated againſt us.

Our religious Society hath been well known through the Britiſh Dominions above an Hundred Years, and was never concerned in promoting or countenancing any Plots or Inſurrections againſt the Government; but on the contrary, when ambitious Men, thirſting for Power, have embroiled the State in inteſtine Commotions and Bloodſhed, ſubverting the Order of Government, our Forefathers, by their public Declarations, and peaceable Conduct, manifeſted their Abhorrence of ſuch traiterous Proceedings; and notwithſtanding they were often ſubjected to groſs Abuſes in their Characters and Perſons, and cruel Impriſonments, Perſecutions, and ſome of them to the Loſs of their Lives, through the Inſtigation of wicked and unreaſonable Men, they ſteadily maintained their Profeſſion, and acted agreeable to the Principles of the true Diſciples of CHRIST; and by their innocent peaceable Conduct, having approved themſelves faithful and loyal Subjects, they obtained the Favour of the Government, and were by Royal Authority entruſted with many valuable Rights and Privileges, to be enjoyed by them and their Succeſſors, with the Property they purchaſed in the Soil of this Province; which induced them to remove from their native Land, with ſome of their Neighbours of other religious Societies, and at their own Expence, without any Charge to the Public, to encounter the Difficulties of improving a Wilderneſs, in which the Bleſſings of divine Providence attended their Endeavours beyond all human Expectation; and from the firſt Settling of the Province, till within a few Years paſt, both the Framing and Adminiſtration of the Laws were committed chiefly to Men of our religious Principles, under whom Tranquility and Peace were preſerved among the Inhabitants, and with the Natives. The Land rejoiced, and every Man was protected in his Perſon and Property, and in the full Enjoyment of Religious and Civil Liberty; but with Grief and Sorrow, for ſome Years paſt, we have obſerved the Circumſtances of the Province to be much changed, and that inteſtine Animoſities, and the deſolating Calamities of War, have taken Place of Tranquility and Peace.

We have, as a religious Society, ever carefully avoided admitting Matters immediately relating to Civil Government into our Deliberations, farther than to excite and engage each other to demean ourſelves as dutiful Subjects to the King, with due Reſpect to thoſe in Authority under him, and to live agreeable to the religious Principles we profeſs, and to the uniform Example of our Anceſtors, and to this End Meetings were inſtituted, and are ſtill maintained, in which our Care and Concern are manifeſted to preſerve that Diſcipline and good Order among us, which tend only to the Promotion of Piety and Virtue; yet as Members of Civil Society, Services ſometimes occur which we do not judge expedient to become the Subject of the Conſideration of our religious Meetings, and, of this Nature is the Aſſociation formed by a Number of Perſons in religious Profeſſion with us, of which on this Occaſion it ſeems incumbent on us to give ſome Account to the Governor, as their Conduct is miſrepreſented, in order to calumniate and reproach us as a religious Society, by the Inſinuations and Slanders in the Papers ſent to the Governor, and particularly in the unſigned Declaration, on Behalf of a Number of armed Men, on the Sixth Inſtant, then approaching the City, from diſtant Parts of the Province, to the Diſturbance of the public Peace.

In the Spring of the Year 1756, the Diſtreſs of the Province being very great, and the deſolating Calamities of a general Indian War apprehended, at the Inſtance of the Provincial Interpreter Conrad Weiſer, and with the Approbation of Governor Morris, ſome of us eſſayed to promote a Reconciliation with the Indians, and their Endeavours being bleſſed with Succeſs, the happy Effects thereof were ſoon manifeſt, and a real Concern for the then deplorable Situation of our Fellow Subjects on the Frontiers prevailing, in order that they might be capable of rendering ſome effectual Service; they freely contributed conſiderable Sums of Money, and engaged others in like Manner to contribute, ſo that about 5000 l. was raiſed, in order to be employed for the Service of the Public, and chief Part thereof hath been ſince expended in Preſents given at the public Treaties (where they were ſometimes delivered by the Governors of this Province, and at other times with their Privity and Permiſſion) for promoting the ſalutary Meaſures of regaining and confirming Peace with the Indians, and procuring the Releaſe of our Countrymen in Captivity; and thereby a conſiderable Number have been reſtored to their Friends; and we find that the Meaſures thus purſued being made known to the King's Generals, who from time to time were here, and having been communicated by an Addreſs ſent to the Proprietaries of this Province in England, appear, by their written Anſwers, and other Teſtimonials, to have received their Countenance and Approbation. This being the Caſe, and the Conduct of thoſe concerned in theſe Affairs, evidently contrary to the Intent and Tendency of the Aſſertion contained in the ſaid unſigned Declaration, pretended to be founded on the Records of the County of Berks, we do not apprehend it neceſſary to ſay any more thereon, than that we are (after proper Enquiry) aſſured, that nothing of that Kind is to be found on thoſe Records, and that the private Minute made by Conrad Weiſer, of a Report he had received from two Indians, of a Story they had heard from another Indian, pretending to be a Meſſenger from the Ohio, does not mention any Perſon whatever, nor contain the Charges expreſſed in the Declaration, and from the Enquiry we have made, we find them groundleſs and unjuſt, and uttered with a View to amuſe and inflame the Credulous, and to vilify and calumniate us.

The invidious Reflection againſt a Sect "that have got the political Reins in their Hands, and tamely tyrannize over the good People of this Province;" though evidently levelled againſt us, manifeſts the Authors of theſe Papers are egregiouſly ignorant of our Conduct, or wilfully bent on miſrepreſenting us; it being known that as a religious Body we have, by publick Advices, and private Admonitions, laboured with, and earneſtly deſired, our Brethren, who have been elected or appointed to public Offices in the Government for ſome Years paſt, to decline taking upon them a Taſk become ſo arduous, under our late and preſent Circumſtances; and that many have concurred with us in this Reſolution is evident, by divers having voluntarily reſigned their Seats in the Houſe of Aſſembly, and by others having, by public Advertiſements, ſignified their declining the Service, and requeſting their Countrymen to chooſe others in their Places, and that many have refuſed to accept of Places in the executive Part of the Government. We are not conſcious that as Engliſhmen, and dutiful Subjects, we have ever forfeited our Right of electing or being elected; but becauſe we could ſerve no longer in thoſe Stations with Satisfaction to ourſelves, many of us have choſen to forbear the Exerciſe of theſe Rights, and wiſh a Diſpoſition of a contrary Nature was not ſo manifeſt in our Adverſaries.

The Accuſation of our having been profuſe to Savages, and carefully avoiding to contribute to the Relief and Support of the diſtreſſed Families on the Frontiers, who have abandoned their Poſſeſſions, and fled for their Lives, is equally invidious and miſtaken; we very early and expeditiouſly promoted a Subſcription, and contributed to the Relief of the Diſtreſſes of thoſe who were plundered, and fled from their Habitations in the Beginning of the Indian War, which was diſtributed among them, in Proviſions and Cloathing, and afforded a ſeaſonable Relief. Divers among us, in the City of Philadelphia, alſo contributed with others the laſt Summer, and we are well aſſured that Money was raiſed, and ſent up by the Members of our Society in different Parts of the Country; and as ſoon as we were informed, that the greateſt Part of what had been voluntarily raiſed by the Citizens of Philadelphia was nearly expended, a Subſcription was ſet on Foot, to which ſeveral very generouſly contributed, and a large Sum might ſoon have been raiſed, and was ſtopped only on Account of the Tumult which hath lately happened; and it hath been from our Regard to our Fellow Subjects on the Frontiers, and Sympathy with their afflicting Diſtreſſes, and a Concern for the general Welfare of the Province, that engaged our Brethren to raiſe the Money they applied to promote a Pacification with the Natives, and no ſeparate Views of Intereſt to ourſelves; but thus unhappily our moſt upright and diſintereſted Intentions are miſconſtrued and perverted, to impoſe on the Weak, and anſwer the pernicious Schemes of the Enemies of Peace.

The eighth Paragraph of the ſecond Paper, called the Remonſtrance, being chiefly anſwered by the foregoing Obſervations, it may be neceſſary only to obſerve, on the malicious Charge of "abetting the Indian Enemies, and keeping up a private Intelligence with them," which we can aſſure the Governor is altogether falſe and groundleſs, and we do not know of any Member of our Society chargeable therewith; the Tranſaction relating to the String (which they have called a Belt of Wampum) we find by Letters from General Forbes, and other Papers produced to us, was in Conſequence of a Meſſage ſent by the King's Deputy Agent to the Indians on the Ohio, in the Name of Sir William Johnſon, their Brother Onas, and the Deſcendants of the firſt Settlers who came over with their antient Brother William Penn; as alſo of Frederick Poſt's being engaged by ſome Members of our Community to go on another Meſſage to theſe Indians, by the expreſs Orders of that General, who then commanded the King's Army, and with the Concurrence of the Governor of this Province; but we do not approve or think it allowable for any private Subject to carry on a Correſpondence, or treat with the Enemies of the King and Government, nor to engage in the Tranſaction of any Affairs of the Government, without the Privity and Conſent of thoſe in Authority over us.

We deſire the Governor to excuſe our taking this Opportunity of exculpating ourſelves from another falſe Accuſation, induſtriouſly progagated, with a Deſign to reproach us as a Society; it having been reported, during the late Commotion in this City, that ſome Perſons of our Community had, in the Evening of the 6th Inſtant, removed, from or near the Barracks, ſix Indians, to an Iſland in the River, nearly oppoſite the City, with a Deſign to conceal them, and evade their being ſeen and examined by ſome of the People from the Frontiers, and that an ex Parte Depoſition of an Apprentice Boy was taken to that Purpoſe; upon hearing which, ſome of us immediately requeſted to have the ſaid Boy and his Maſter carefully examined before the Mayor; in Conſequence thereof, both of them were enjoined and required by the Recorder, and one of the Aldermen, to appear before the Mayor, in the Morning of the 11th Inſt. at 11 o'Clock; but it appeared, from the Teſtimony of his Maſter, that before the Time appointed the Boy abſconded, and after diligent Search is not ſince found. Wherefore the Mayor, after the Examination of the Military Officers (to whoſe Care the Indians had been committed) and of other Witneſſes relating to the Matter, upon conſidering thereof, and the Circumſtances attending the Relation; firſt the Alderman, before whom the Depoſition had been made, and afterwards the Mayor publickly declared, they were convinced the Accuſation was utterly falſe and groundleſs.

It would be a tedious Taſk for us to undertake to anſwer all the ſlanderous Reports, and Miſrepreſentations, which have been ſpread, with a Deſign to prejudice our Characters, through the Malice of ſome, and the Ignorance of others; but having the Teſtimony of our Conſciences to recur to for our Innocence, we hope, through Divine Aſſiſtance, we ſhall be enabled to bear Reproaches; and, by the Uprightneſs of our Conduct, ſhew forth to the World, that we live in the Fear of GOD, and pay the juſt Returns of dutiful Submiſſion to the King, for the Continuance of his paternal Tenderneſs towards us; and that we are, as we have ever been, real Friends to the Government, and ſteadily deſirous of acting agreeable to our Stations, as Members of Civil Society.

Signed on Behalf, and by Order of a Committee appointed to repreſent our Religious Society in Pennſylvania and New-Jerſey, at a Meeting held in Philadelphia, the 25th of Second-Month, 1764.

BY a private letter, dated Paris, Nov. 22, we learn, that on the the 19th the Duke de Harcourt went to the Parliament-houſe at Rouen, where all the Chambers were aſſembled, eraſed all the arrets and reſolutions, of the 16th; and entered in the regiſter, an arret of the Council, annulling them in very harſh terms. Upon which all the members immediately reſolved to reſign their places. Accordingly eighty of them have laid aſide their gowns, and ſome ſent their reſignations to Court immediately. The Preſident has alſo ſent back his commiſſion. The perſons who poſted up at Rouen this laſt arret of the Council, were guarded by a party of the Marechauſie.

The French King has given the government of St. Domingo, vacant by the death of M. de Belſunce, to the famous Count d'Eſtain, who ſerved in the Eaſt-Indies.

By the Liſbon mail which arrived yeſterday, a letter was received from Tidmas, Secretary to the expedition under Captain Macnamara, of the Lord Clive privateer, dated Rio de Janeiro, May 26, 1763, adviſing, that after the unfortunate blowing up of that ſhip, Captain Roberts, in the Ambuſcade, ſteered for the River of Plate. "In the attack of Nova Colonia (ſays Mr. Tidmas) the Ambuſcade had 13 men killed, and 12 more dangerouſly wounded, moſt of them with the loſs of limbs, and the greateſt part ſince dead; 13 others wounded, incapable of duty, and many more ſlightly hurt. Our main-maſt ſhot through in three different places, and quite unſerviceable. The fore-maſt ſhot through about a third maſt down; both top-maſts wounded, as well as all our booms and boats; and was obliged to cut away one boat a-ſtern, being ſhot through and ſunk; at the ſame time we cut our cable to get clear of the Lord Clive's ſtern when ſhe was burning. Moſt of our lower ſhrouds, ſtays, lifts, braces, and ſheets, are ſhot through; in ſhort, ſcarce any of the rigging has eſcaped. We have alſo two quarter-deck guns diſabled, and three carriages, beſides twelve pound carriages. During the engagement we fired upwards of 600 ſhot, and 28 barrels of powder.

"We made ſhift to ſtop our leaks in the River of Plate, ſo as to proceed to this place, where we arrived the 2d of March, and have now a thorough repair by the Portugueſe. We received the news ſome time paſt, by private letters, of a general peace, but as the particulars are not come from the court of Portugal, the war ſtill continues here between them and the Spaniards; and they have ſollicited Captain Roberts to convoy ſome of their veſſels and troops to the iſland of St. Catherine's, which he has conſented to, and agreed to ſtay there one month, if occaſion; and then he propoſes to return here, and ſo proceed to Liſbon, where we hope to arrive on or about November, and I ſhall take a paſſage from thence to England the firſt opportunity."

Dec. 3. On Friday the Hon. Houſe of Commons, preceded by Sir John Cuſt, Bart. their Speaker, waited upon the King, at St. James's, with their addreſs of thanks, on his Majeſty's communicating to them the intended marriage of his ſiſter, the Princeſs Auguſta, with the hereditary Prince of Brunſwic; which was moſt graciouſly received.

Extract of a letter from Cadiz, Nov. 5.

"Two Spaniſh men of war have juſt returned from ſounding the bay of Algiers, in which employment they continued for the ſpace of two days, under Dutch colours, but at coming off hoiſted the flag of Spain, and fired guns. It is ſaid the Algerines on ſhore, from theſe motions, are in a terrible pannic, expecting nothing leſs than a bombardment.

"By the above ſhips we learn, that beſides a great number of xebeques, they have two 70, three 60, and nine 50 gun ſhips in the harbour, all rigged and ready for the ſea. A very formidable power I aſſure you, and capable of ſtriking terror into all the trade of the Mediterranean, who are not upon terms with theſe infidels."

Two hundred French Proteſtants, who are well acquainted with the culture of ſilk, and making of wines, are going to South Carolina.

Dec. 3. In the violent ſtorm which began yeſterday morning at W. N. W. part of the Houſe of Mr. Keen, Woollen-Draper near Aldgate, was blown down; a ſtack of chimnies was blown down in Vere-ſtreet, in the Minories, which fell upon a bulding belonging to a Carman, made uſe as of a ſtable, and the upper part for keeping pidgeons, 36 of which were killed. A ſtack of Chimnies at No. 7. in Lincoln's-Inn New Square was blown down, which broke through the roof into the apartments of Mr. Mitchell, who was much hurt by the accident, but it is hoped not dangerouſly. A ſtack of chimnies in Sackville-ſtreet was blown down, which broke through the roof of the houſe, and did great damage. A ſtack of chimnies was blown down at the Fountain tavern in Bartholomew-lane, behind the Exchange, which broke through a ſky-light into the kitchen, and did conſiderable damage. A ſtack of chimnies belonging to the houſe of Goddard Hagen, Eſq; in Mark-Lane, was blown down, which forced through two cielings; and in one of the rooms was one of the clerks in bed, who was buried under the rubbiſh for a quarter of an hour, and had it not been for a piece of lead which fell on him firſt, and kept the rubbiſh from him, he muſt have expired. A chimney at the back of Mr. Ware's, on Ludgate-hill, fell through the ſky-light into the ſhop, but did no great damage. The roof of the Hoop and Falcon near St. Martin's Le Grand, was blown down. The upper part of a houſe in Long-Lane, Weſt-Smithfield, was blown down, which terrified the family to ſuch a degree, that men, women, and children ran into the ſtreet without any cloaths on. A houſe was blown down in Nags-head-alley, Whitecroſs-ſtreet, and ſeveral perſons buried in the ruins. A houſe in Pipe-makers alley, Bedfordberry, was blown down; there was only an old woman in it, who was dug out of the ruins, but ſo much bruiſed, that her life is deſpaired of. An arm of a large elm-tree was broke off in the Mall in St. James's Park. A great part of the long wall of Sadlers-well was blown down. A houſe in Hoxton was blown down. A houſe in Edmonton-waſh was blown down, and fell into the road, and ſtopped it up; ſo that the ſtage coaches, &c. are obliged to go round about a conſiderable way. The turnpike-houſe at Cheſhunt in Hertfordſhire, was blown down, but happily no lives were loſt.

The wind yeſterday morning drove the tide with ſuch violence, that it run into the ſtreets at Milbank, Weſtminſter, by which the cellars were all filled, and the inhabitants ſuffered a great deal of damage; conſiderable damage was alſo done to the gardens towards Chelſea. The Mary, Reed, an empty ſhip, lying at King-Stairs, was forced from her mooring, and drove to Princes-Stairs, where her bowſprit entered into the back part of a publick houſe, and ſtuck faſt without receiving much damage; ſeveral other ſhips were alſo drove from their moorings, and received ſome damage. Two boats laden with oyſters, compleat, and five perſons were drowned.

We hear from Yarmouth, that a ſmall Engliſh fiſhing ſloop put in there the 25th paſt, in a ſinking condition, having been wilfully run foul of by a Dutch fiſhing dogger off the Banks, who not only carried away the ſloop's bowſprit, but had the inſolence to demand what buſineſs they had to fiſh in the ſeas of Holland, though thoſe pretended Dutch ſeas were within four miles of the ſhore of Folkſtone.

They write from France, that an inhabitant of Lyons having a brother, a ſtate priſoner, confined in the Baſtile, conveyed him ſome fire-arms and gunpowder, in order to deſtroy himſelf; but being detected, he was immediately brought to his trial, and was ſentenced to have both his hands chopped off, and his body to be burnt; but from that verdict he appealed to have his puniſhment mitigated, but could not obtain any favourable anſwer.

The land-tax will be continued at four ſhillings in the pound for the enſuing year, and the ſavings by the reduction of the land and ſea forces, and the ſurplus of the other funds, being ſufficient to anſwer the emergencies of the ſtate, no additional taxes will be laid on the ſubject.

Dec. 7. The number of perſons ſuppoſed to have periſhed on board the Hanover Packet from Liſbon, are computed to be upwards of 60; among whom, it is ſaid, was one Mr. Jacomb, a young gentleman, who was coming over in order to enjoy an eſtate which was lately left him of about 800l. per ann.

Dec. 8. A letter from Scarborough, of the 2d inſtant, ſays, "We have had ſuch a hurricane laſt night, as the oldeſt men in this town declare they do not remember the like: Many of the houſes are ſtript, chimnies blown down, and the ſhips in the harbour broke looſe; ten ſhips drove on ſhore between Bland's Cliff and the White Nab, and ſeveral perſons were drowned."

A letter from Yarm of the ſame date, ſays, "We have this day had a prodigious flood of water; in many places of the ſtreet, and alſo in ſeveral houſes, it is about ſix feet high: Much damage is ſuſtained by many of the Inhabitants."

We have received letters from Scarborough, Yarm, Whitby, &c. of great damage being done both on land and water, and of many lives being loſt, in the ſtorm of wind which happened on Tueſday night. The letter from Whitby concludes thus, "In ſhort, all around here appears full of deſolation and ruins; but what ſeems moſt amazing is, that the ſouth ſide of the weſt iſle of our old abbey, which had outbraved the fury of all ſtorms for many ages, and was ſupported by more than twenty fine Gothick arches, is entirely blown down to the very foundation, and not ſo much as one ſtone remains upon another.

By private letters from France we hear, that the next day after Duke de Fitz James had confined the Preſidents and Members of the Parliament of Thoulouſe, the people aſſembled armed, and fell upon the regiment of Fitz James's horſe, in garriſon there to ſupport the Duke's authority, and cut it almoſt entirely to pieces.

December 9. The better to diſconcert French Chicanery in North-America, we are informed that moſt of our Men of War, on their paſſage to the Weſt-Indies, are ordered to touch at Newfoundland, and cruiſe ſome Time on the Banks, to ſhew the French we are ever at Hand to puniſh the leaſt Infraction of the Treaty. Theſe Frigates are likewiſe conſtantly to exerciſe in the Gut of Canſo and Bay of Fundy, and to be occaſionally relieved.

Sixty pieces of Iron Ordnance are now preparing to be ſhipped for Newfoundland, for the Defence of the Fiſhery.

Dec. 10. We have accounts from Lincolnſhire, of great damage being done by the late dreadful ſtorm; that near Spalding the banks were broken in ſeveral places, and the cattle carried away or drowned, ſo that it is computed upwards of 3000 ſheep were loſt, beſides horſes, &c. One perſon loſt above 200 ſheep. And at the ſame time a mill was ſet on fire, by the violence of the wind, and was burnt down, at Sutton, in the Iſle of Fly.

"On Thurſday the 1ſt of this inſt. a prodigious quantity of rain fell here, accompanied with a violent tempeſtuous wind. The river Tees roſe ſo faſt, that about four o'clock, on Friday morning, it was in every houſe of the town, and, at half paſt eight, was four feet deep in moſt houſes, in few leſs, and in many near two yards. The damage is not very conſiderable, as the major part of the inhabitants had fortunately ſecured their goods. Some indeed, who were not apprehenſive of the water's riſing, did not perceive their danger till break of day, and others ſlept ſecurely for ſome time after their beds floated in the water. The current ran ſo forcibly, that ſcarce a wall is left ſtanding about the town; but thank God, no houſes were thrown down, nor any lives loſt. Happy is it for this town, that the wind was eaſterly; had it been in the Weſt our caſe, we have reaſon to fear, would have been deplorable to the laſt degree. From accounts, out of the neighbourhood, we may venture to affirm that no leſs than a thouſand ſheep have been loſt along the banks of the river, excluſive of other cattle."

Cork, Nov. 22. We have many late and authentic accounts from different parts of the county of Tipperary, of the White Boys meetings, under pretence of redreſſing grievances, but in a much more reſerved manner than at firſt. For ſome conſiderable time paſt, they have met near a place called the Devil's Bit, almoſt two nights in the week regularly, and as conſtantly diſperſed without committing any outrage, after a few hours conſultation together; in other parts they have frequently held nocturnal meetings, for which purpoſe they have not only preſſed gentlemens, but alſo poor carriers horſes. On the night of the 6th inſt. a party of them levelled ſome new built walls of houſes which were ready for roofing, on a concern of lands lately tenanted near the town of Clogheen; and laſt Tueſday night a conſiderable number of them aſſembled on the lands of Rakeevan, near the houſe of Richard Moore, of Barn, Eſq; and broke open a paſſage through the ſaid Lands.

Newcaſtle, Dec. 3. Thurſday morning early it began to rain here, with the wind at S. E. which continued that day with the wind very high, and veering between E. and N. E. At night it blew in a moſt tempeſtuous manner, when great damage was done to ſeveral houſes by the fall of the chimnies, &c. and by the prodigious ſwell of the river, which was at leaſt three feet higher than ever known; the ſhops, cellars, and warehouſes, in the Cloſe, Sandhill, Keyſide, and Gateſhead, were many of them ſo filled with water, that the damage is computed at upwards of 4000 l. The water, about two o'clock yeſterday morning, was full three feet deep in the ſtreets, between the walls and the houſes on the key; a quantity of timber floated half way up the Broad Chair, and a ſloop lying oppoſite to the left by the fall of the water; but in the Afternoon was ſafely launched, as were alſo ſeveral keels and boats.

BOSTON, February, 27.

At a Meeting of the Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the Town of Boſton, on Friday laſt, it was voted unanimouſly, That the Thanks of the Town be given the Rev. Mr. GEORGE WHITEFIELD, for his charitable Care and Pains in collecting a conſiderable Sum of Money in Great-Britain, for the diſtreſſed Sufferers by the great Fire in Boſton, 1760; and a reſpectable Committee was appointed to wait on Mr. Whitefield, to inform him of the Vote, and preſent him with a Copy thereof, which Committee waited upon him accordingly, and received the following anſwer.

Gentlemen,

THIS Vote of Thanks for ſo ſmall an Inſtance of my Good-will to Boſton, as it was entirely unexpected, quite ſurprizes me.---Often have I been much concerned, that I could do no more upon ſuch a diſtreſſing Occaſion. ----That the Redeemer may ever preſerve the Town from ſuch like melancholy Events, and ſanctify their preſent afflictive Circumſtances to the ſpiritual Welfare of all its Inhabitants, is the hearty Prayer of,

Gentlemen,

Your ready Servant in our common LORD,

GEORGE WHITEFIELD.

The Rev. Mr. WHITEFIELD preached on Tueſday and Saturday laſt, at the Old South Meeting-Houſe, to large and crouded Auditories.

NEW-YORK, March 8.

Extract of a Letter (by laſt Albany Poſt) of indubitable Credit.

"Sir WILLIAM JOHNSON has lately ſent out a party, conſiſting of near 200 Indians, of the well-diſpoſed nations, accompanied by ſome rangers, and proper officers, in order to cut off the Indians of the large village of KANESTIO; who have diſcovered the greateſt inveteracy againſt the Engliſh, and committed the firſt hoſtilities ---This party is afterwards to proceed againſt ſome SHAWANESE, and DELAWARE villages; and from the alacrity which our Indians have expreſſed, there is great reaſon to hope they'll meet with ſucceſs; which will ſtrike a terror into all our enemies in that country.---We hear likewiſe, there are ſeveral other parties preparing to go upon the like ſervice; which it is expected will find the deſtroyers of our back ſettlements in ſufficient work at home, and prove the deſtruction of many of them."

PHILADELPHIA, March 8.

Extract of a Letter from Fort Bedford, February 28, 1764.

"On the Twenty-ſecond Inſtant, as a Party were cutting Wood about a Mile and a Half from Fort Pitt, they ſaw ſix Indians coming up to them, at about Thirty Yards Diſtance, upon which the Cry was immediately given to ſtand to their Arms; but the Enemy intercepted them, and fired on our People, when one Man was killed, and another wounded in the Breaſt with an Arrow. The wounded Man kept three of the Indians off, till he was left alone, and then was obliged to get down a Rock, in a very precipitate Manner, and ſo happily eſcaped.------The Piquet was immediately ſent out, who found the Man that was killed (a Highlander) the whole Skin was taken off his Head; his Belly ripped open, and his Heart taken out.-----Three of the Enemy were armed with Bows and Arrows.

"The ſame Day four Hunters returned to Fort Pitt from Red-Stone-Creek, and brought an Account of their having loſt one of the Royal Americans in the Woods, who, they were afraid, was carried off by the Enemy."

Other Letters from Fort Bedford, mention that the Pannic occaſioned by the above Account, was pretty general.

⁂ Whereas a Number of the Public ARMS, lent, during the late Riots, to private Perſons, are not yet returned; Notice is hereby given to all who are poſſeſſed of ſuch Arms, that they deliver them forthwith to Capt. RICHARD SWAN, who is empowered to receive the ſame.

This Tract of Land has a moſt remarkable fine Situation, on the River Delaware, would ſuit a Gentleman in Philadelphia, that wants a Country Seat, and has a Turn for Improvement, which the Land is very capable of, and is happily placed for Fiſhery, Fowling, Hunting, &c. &c.

The other Tract, containing 105 Acres, lies about one Mile nearer to Philadelphia, fronting on the River Delaware, and contiguous to Lands of Lawrence Growdon, Eſq; is well wooded and watered, and has a wooden Tenement thereon; there is ſome Meadow made, and Part of the Land under good Fence. LONDON.

Dec. 12. On Saturday came on at Guildhall, before Lord Chief Juſtice Pratt, and a ſpecial jury of merchants, the cauſe wherein Mr. Dryden Leach, the maſter printer, taken up for printing the North-Briton No. 45. was plaintif, and three of the King's meſſengers defendants, when a verdict was given for the plaintif in 400l. damages, with full coſts.

Bills of exceptions are brought in the twenty cauſes which have been determined in favour of the printers, as alſo in Mr. Wilkes's.

Mr. Alderman Blount, one of the Sheriffs of London, has received a letter from the Speaker of the Hon. Houſe of Commons, containing the unanimous thanks of that Houſe, for conducting himſelf (jointly with Mr. Alderman Harley, the other Sheriff) with proper ſpirit and vigour on Saturday ſe'nnight, in the execution of the order of the Houſes of Parliament for burning the North-Briton, No. 45. Mr. Harley, the other Sheriff, is a member of the Houſe of Commons, and in that caſe, unleſs the gentleman, for whom this honour is intended, be at a diſtance, it is uſual for the Speaker to thank viva voce in the Houſe.

We hear that a celebrated Genius, before he left England on Tueſday laſt, made an extraordinary diſcovery to ſome particular perſons, which, it is ſuppoſed, will not long be kept ſecret. It is ſaid he has taken a houſe at Berlin for two years, and propoſes great ſatisfaction before his return, in ſeeing the two moſt diſtinguiſhed geniuſes in the world, in their reſpective characters, viz. the King of Pruſſia, the greateſt Monarch and Hero, and Voltaire, the greateſt Poet.

Dec. 13. Arrived at Briſtol in 49 days from the Wilds of America, part of the ruins of his Majeſty's ſecond battalion royal. This corps had the poſt of honour at the ſieges of Louiſburgh and Ticonderoga, led on by their Captains and ſubaltern Officers; they aſſiſted in the conqueſt of all Canada; exchanged ſome thruſts with the Cherokees; were at Martinico; and had a hand in taking the Havanna, as well as in retaking St. John's Newfoundland.

We are credibly informed, that the Earl of Shelburne, and Col. Barre, who were ſaid to have reſigned their ſeveral employments of Aid-de-Camp to his Majeſty, Deputy Adjutant General and Lieutenant Governor of Stirling Caſtle, were actually diſmiſſed from their ſaid reſpective employments.

They write from the Hague, that they had an account from Warſaw, that the Primate, with advice of the Senators who were in that city, upon information that a body of Ruſſians had entered Lithuania, ſent orders to the Saxon troops who were returning to Germany, to halt till further orders.

In conſequence of the bills of exceptions brought in the ſeveral cauſes which have been decided in favour of Mr. Wilkes and the Printers, all thoſe cauſes will be re-heard in the Houſe of Peers, the Supreme Court of Judicature.

When the late unfortunate Hanover packet boat, Capt. Sherborne, was wrecked in the North Channel, her complement of men was 39, and 11 gentlemen paſſengers, out of which only three of the common ſeamen moſt miraculouſly were ſaved. The Tinners on this occaſion behaved with moſt extraordinary humanity, and juſtly merit a quite different character from what has been heretofore aſcribed to them. The violence of the ſea was ſuch, that though a new ſhip, and partly in the ſand, ſhe was in ten thouſand pieces by the next morning (it being night when ſhe ſtruck.) One thouſand guineas are now offered to the Tinners if they can get up the iron cheſt of money, in which are upwards of 50,000 moidores; and the private effects on board this ſhip are at the leaſt computation worth ten thouſand moidores more.

KINGSTON (in Jamaica) December 8.

By a letter from Black River, on the Muſquito ſhore, dated Nov. 11, 1763, we learn, "That the Spaniards are gathering all the troops, and others fit to bear arms, from all the provinces adjacent, under the command of Don Lewis Dies Navarre. A lieutenant colonel arrived from Guatimala with a troop of dragoons, and other men in arms, and are rendezvouſed at Truxillo. We are juſt diſpatching a flag of truce to Truxillo, to enquire into the truth of this information, and have ordered all the Muſquito Indians down here, and put ourſelves in arms to act with them, for the protection of this ſettlement."

CHARLES-TOWN (South-Carolina) Jan. 25.

The following is a genuine and authentick copy of the talks between the commanding officer at Pittſburg, and the chiefs of the Delaware and Shawaneſe Indians, taken by a perſon of great integrity, and well ſkilled in the Indian languages, who was preſent.

FORT PITT, July 26, 1763.

AT a meeting with Shingas Teſkekamen, Wingenam, Turtle-heart, Capt. Johny, and Mumalcis, principal men and Warriors of the Delawares, and the Great Wolf, and four other of the Shawaneſe, Shingas ſpoke as follows: Brothers, I am glad it has pleaſed God that we ſhould live to meet and ſpeak together this day in friendſhip." Then addreſſing himſelf to his own people, "He deſired them to obſerve what was ſaid to them, or their Brethren the Engliſh.

Brothers, It gives us a great deal of ſatisfaction to have this opportunity of renewing our antient friendſhip, and we are much obliged to you for ſending us this ſmall ſett of colours as a token of your friendſhip, by which we are this day enabled to ſpeak together.

Brothers, Liſten now with attention to what I am going to ſay: As it has always been your deſire that we ſhould hold faſt by the Chain of Friendſhip, I now aſſure you that we have always done it, and do ſtill hold it faſt, and we hope you do the ſame; it is now in your power to continue it.

Brothers, On your firſt coming to theſe places, we were the firſt nation you contracted a friendſhip with; after this you extended Belts of Friendſhip acroſs this country, the ends of which reached thoſe nations which are towards the ſun ſetting; then as we were ſituated in the center between you and them in this country, you requeſted of us that we would hold faſt by the middle of the Belt; this we aſſure you we have done with both our hands, and have holden it cloſe to our hearts, but now we ſee both ends let looſe, and we are now the only people to hold this belt up by the middle. Brothers, let us be ſtrong on both ſides, and take pity on our warriors, women and children. Let us be ſincere and ſpeak from our hearts, and be honeſt in every thing that now paſſes between us.---I now take this friendſhip belt and lay it in the Fort, where we requeſt you will aſſiſt us in preſerving it.---Brothers, Do not imagine that what I now ſay comes from my lips only, I do aſſure you it comes from the bottom of our hearts! we make no doubt but this will give you the ſame pleaſure, if you are as ſincere as we really are.

Brothers, You ſent us word that you were ſo firmly ſeated here, that you were not to be removed.

Brothers, You have towns and places of your own; you know this is our country, and that your having poſſeſſion of it muſt be offenſive to all nations of Indians, therefore it would be proper that you were in your own country, whereby your friendſhip might always remain undeſtroyed.

Brothers, Some time ago you deſired that we would go out of your way, that you might paſs to thoſe nations that have diſturbed the chain of friendſhip.---You yourſelves are the people that have done it: In the firſt place, by coming with a large army into this country, and building forts; we were then the firſt who went to meet you; having no miſtruſt of your doings, and nothing but good in our hearts towards you, we agreed to every thing you deſired; at the ſame time we requſted of you in the ſtrongeſt terms not to extend your forts any further than this Poſt [Fort-Pitt] notwithſtanding this, you croſſed the lakes, and what paſſed between the nations living that way and you, we were acquainted with, but you ſee they have ſlipped their hands from their friendſhip with you, and as you deſire to know who ſtruck you, we take this opportunity to make you ſenſible of it, which I believe you cannot help thinking is true, for you have no body whatever to blame but yourſelves for what has happened.

Brothers, We have endeavoured to ſtop all parties we ſaw going againſt you; ſome we were able to prevail with, others we were not, who we ſuppoſe will proſecute the war againſt you. Our reaſon for not coming two days ago to ſpeak with you was, that we received this ſtring of wampum, which I have now in my hands, from all the nations over the lakes, the following is what they ſaid upon it.---"Grand Fathers, the Delawares.---By this ſtring, we inform you that we intend in a ſhort time to go through your country, with a great large body of men, on our way to the forks of the Ohio; Grand Fathers, you know us to be a fooliſh people; we are determined to ſhare, eat, deſtroy and devour every thing that comes before us in our way."

Brothers, Here is the Wampum, you have heard what the deſire is, if you go quietly home to your wiſe men, this is the furtheſt they will go, if not, you ſee what will be the conſequences of that, We, by this, deſire that you do remove off from hence in peace.

[Gave a String of Wampum]

Brothers, We have now delivered every thing we have to ſay, Conſider on it, and when you have a mind to anſwer us, fire a gun, and we will come over to hear you: We hope when this is done to be able, each of us, to riſe up and go to our reſpective homes."

The following is the commanding officer's anſwer to the Delaware and Shawaneſe Indians, delivered at Fort Pitt, 27th July, 1763.

"Brothers, You muſt be certain of our ſincerity towards you, as we have never broken our treaties with you, or any of the Indian Nations, ſince our firſt coming into the country, therefore obſerve what I ſhall now inform you of, in anſwer to your ſpeech delivered yeſterday to me.

You complain that we have taken your country, and built ſtrong forts: Now Brothers, Theſe Forts were built to protect you and your trade, which you have often been told of; with regard to our lands, we have taken none but ſuch as our enemies the French did poſſeſs; you ſuffered them for to ſettle in the heart of your country without moleſtation, why would you now pretend to turn us off of it; We who have always been friendly and kind to you.

Brothers, As for the garriſon, I now tell you that I will not abandon this poſt. I have warriors, proviſions, and ammunition in plenty, to defend it for three Years againſt all the Indians in the woods, and we will never abandon this place as long as a White Man lives in America: I deſpiſe the Ottawaws, and am very much ſurpriſed at our brothers the Delawares, for propoſing to us to leave this place, and to go home; this is our home, and you attacked us without reaſon or provocation; you have murdered and plundered our traders, you have taken our horſes and cattle, and at the ſame time you tell us, "your hearts are good towards your Brothers the Engliſh." How can I have faith in you, or believe that you are ſincere? Therefore now,

Brothers, I would deſire you to go home to your towns, and take care of your women and children; when we have occaſion to ſpeak to you we ſhall ſend to you; if your Chiefs at any time have any thing to ſay to us, they muſt go to Fort Bedford, where they will meet our great men and George Croghan; they will be well received, and I will give them letters and copies of the ſpeeches I received of you."

Charles-Town, in South-Carolina, February 8.

The laſt letters from Mobille and Penſacola inform us, that the Spaniards of Vera Cruz, &c. aſſert that the French king will very ſoon cede to his Catholick Majeſty the iſland and town of New Orleans, with the country weſt of the Miſſiſippi, where, however, they have no ſettlement. The military eſtabliſhment at New Orleans, which was, during the laſt peace, 36 companies, is now reduced to ſix companies.

A ſhip from the Havanna, with a conſiderable quantity of money on board, bound for London, is loſt on the great Bahama bank.

Feb. 15. Several traders arrived at Auguſta about the 1ſt inſt. from the country of the Creeks, who ſay that thoſe Indians who killed the People at Long-Canes ſent one of the ſcalps to the Cuſſitaws, which was not received by the Indians of that town. They were endeavouring to get as many of their relations together as poſſible, in order to proceed to the ſettlements, where they may get plunder when they kill people, for they ſay the Long-Canes people are not worth killing, for they get nothing when they have killed them. Runners were ſent off to call in all the headmen for hunting.

Some of the Indians who were preſent at the conſultation, holden in the woods by the Creek Indians, about their countrymen who murdered the unfortunate ſettlers at Long-Canes, affirm, that Half-breed-Abram and the Young Twin both oppoſed their being put to death.

Feb. 22. Some of the Catawba Indians, not being ſatisfied with the adminiſtration of their new King, Col. Ayers, who ſucceeded old king Heigler, are come here to talk about a new one.

We are told Charles Garth, Eſq; agent for this province in Great-Britain, is appointed King's agent for Georgia; and that he has renewed his application to parliament for liberty to export rice directly to Madeira, the Canaries, &c. alſo for a bounty on hemp, and for liberty to bring ſalt from Liſbon, a privilege enjoyed by the northern colonies.

A gentleman arrived from Hiſpaniola informs us, that the French are buſy fortifying that iſland, and that great numbers of their troops are daily carried off by ſickneſs.

It is confidently ſaid in letters from London, that the French have ceded to the Spaniards New Orleans, and all their poſſeſſions weſt of the Miſſiſippi; and are to have in lieu thereof the Spaniſh part of Hiſpaniola.

BOSTON, March 5.

Wedneſday laſt ſailed from this Port the Sloop Stamford, Capt. Wimble, for New-Providence, with his Excellency General SHIRLEY on board, for his Government of the Bahama Iſlands---At his paſſing Caſtle William, he was ſaluted with a Diſcharge from the Guns there.

Friday laſt the Revd. Mr. WHITEFIELD preach'd at Charleſtown; and Yeſterday at Medford. He has been deſired to poſtpone his preaching in this Town for ſome Time, as their might be danger of ſpreading the Small-Pox, by ſuch Crowds of People attending his Lectures.----

NEW-YORK, March 12.

Our Advices from the Frontiers of this Province, received by Way of Expreſs on Thurſday laſt, and by the Albany Poſt on Saturday, are of as indubitable Authority and Credit, as the Extract we gave in our laſt relating to the March of 200 Indians, ſent out by Sir WILLIAM JOHNSON againſt the Indian Village of KANESTIO.----Theſe Advices are, That on the 2d Inſtant, at Night, Sir WILLIAM received an Expreſs by an Indian and a white Man, from the above Party, importing, "That on the Evening of the 26th of February, they had reached the main Branch of the River Saſquehanna, on their Way Weſtward, when they received private Advices, that a large body of Delawares, our Enemies, were at a ſmall Diſtance, deſtined againſt ſome of our ſettlements; upon which Intelligence our Party immediately made all poſſible Diſpatch to ſurprize them, which they happily effected, by ſurrounding them in their Encampment at the Dawn of Day on the 27th. Their approach was ſo ſudden, that our Enemies could make no Defence, and were made priſoners to the number of 41, with their Chief Captain Bull (an Indian) Son of Teedyuſcung, a Perſon who has been in Arms againſt the Engliſh, during all the late Hoſtilities, having headed many Parties, and diſcovered great Inveteracy againſt us. Our Indians immediately bound the Priſoners, and ſent them under a ſtrong Eſcort to Sir WILLIAM, where they were expected a Day or Two after the 3d Inſtant." [We truſt this good Beginning will be followed by ſome other Succeſſes, and ſufficiently prove the Importance they are of in an Indian War, as well as the Judgment of the preſent GENERAL, who has made uſe of their Services.]

We are further informed from Albany, that another Party of Indians (ſaid to be about 400) in our Intereſt, are preparing to go againſt our tawny coloured Enemies, as ſoon as the Weather is ſomewhat more mild:---The Whole ſet in Motion by the indefatigable Induſtry of Sir WILLIAM.

By late Accounts from the Havanna, we learn, that there are no leſs than 6000 Regular Troops at that Place; that they are erecting ſeveral new Batteries, repairing the Moro, and all the other Fortifications in and about the City; and that the Inhabitants are, as well as the King's Troops, exerciſed almoſt every Day in the Week.

A Sloop, M'Kay maſter, belonging to this Port, was lately loſt, in going to Mobille from Penſacola.

This Day the Duke of Cumberland Packet, Capt. Goodridge, ſails with the Mail for Falmouth.

Extract of a Letter from Albany, dated the Second Inſtant.

"I have now to inform you of ſuch a Breaking-up of the Ice as I never ſaw, nor moſt of the People here; the 11th of February at Night it rained very hard, and continued looſe Weather till the 13th in the Afternoon, when it cleared up with a North-weſter, which drove down the Water; and on the 14th the Ice broke above the City, and came down, forcing the Ice to break, to the old Fort, where it ſtopped, and the Water took its Paſſage through Renſſelear's Creek: This firſt Movement made a Breach into the Storehouſe at the King's Wharff, and has ruined about Half of it; the Ice was above a Foot thick, and as firm as Glaſs: This was well enough till the 17th, when the Wind came Southerly, which raiſed the Water, and at Night the Ice went again, and broke up as low as the Creek of Jan Witbeek's; the Water was ſo high as to leave the Road along the Widow Bratt's and John Yates's, covered with Ice, and the Water breaking through back of them; ſo that that Neighbourhood was on an Iſland three Days: In the Paſture, a Sloop might have ſailed; Capt. Bratt's Houſe ſtood between three and four Feet in the Water, and Mountains of Ice laying before his Door yet; if it had not happened that it got a Paſſage through the Creek at Hitchen Holland's, nothing could have ſaved Renſſelear's Houſe, and that Neighbourhood: Upon the whole, I think that the Lord has ſaved all wonderfully; no Lives loſt, and no Buildings hurt, except the Store Houſe, and ſome Fences.

PHILADELPHIA, March 15.

Laſt Week two Men were taken up, and committed to the Goal of this City, on Suſpicion of robbing Mr. Clifford's Houſe of a Quantity of Plate, and other Things, as advertiſed in this Paper; and upon their Examination ſuch Diſcoveries were made, that about a Third Part of the Plate, chiefly ſmall, was found in one of their Cheſts. It is thought there are ſome others concerned with them, though not yet diſcovered. And it is alſo ſuppoſed that the ſame Perſons lately robbed the Houſe of Mrs. M'Call, in Walnut-ſtreet, of ſundry Pieces of Plate, which have ſince been recovered. The Perſons in Cuſtody are ſaid to be a Doctor and Cabinet Maker; the firſt, we hear, goes by the Name of William Frederick Ouſenreed, alias Hendenreed; the laſt by that of John Brinklow, alias Benſon, both Convicts from England into Virginia.

In a Letter from Bethlehem, in Northampton County, of the Third of March, it is ſaid, that on the Sunday before as one John Ruſſell was Hunting near Fort Penn, he was fired on by three Indians; upon which he took to a Tree, where he bravely ſtood three Fires from each of them, returned as many, and obliged the Savages to make the beſt of their Way off.---One Shot went thro' his Hat; another thro' the Sleeve of his Coat; and a Third wounded him ſlightly in the Calf of his Leg. [Ruſſell is Brother to the two Lads, one of which was lately found roaſted in a Barn, the other ſuppoſed to be murdered, or carried off by the Enemy.]

We learn from Carliſle, that on the Fifth Inſtant there was a Report there of ſome Perſons being lately killed at Aughwick by the Indians.

LONDON.

Nov. 21. It having been repreſented in many of the publick papers, that Mr. Pitt, his Majeſty's Envoy at Turin, had been inſulted by the patrole in that capital, without being able to obtain a proper ſatisfaction, we can aſſure the Publick, from good authority, that it was owing entirely to the lenity and interceſſion of that Miniſter, that the puniſhment inflicted on the offenders, which has been entirely ſatisfactory, was not much more ſevere.

Thurſday laſt Sir James Hodges, Knt. Town-Clerk of this city, waited on the late Lord Mayor, William Beckford, Eſq; with the following thanks, in purſuance of an order of Common-Council made the 15th inſt.

It is unanimouſly reſolved, and ordered, "That the thanks of this Court be given to the Right Hon. Another Engliſh Frigate, the Deal Caſtle, ſailed from hence the 3d for Mahon, where it was to have landed the equipage and effects of the Duke of York, but was forced by contrary winds to return to this bay on the 6th."

Letters from Calais by the laſt French mail adviſe, that amongſt a great number of wrecks which happened on Friday laſt in the violent ſtorm, was a fiſhing veſſel with fifteen or ſixteen hands on board, which lay at anchor within about forty yards of the harbour. The wind blowing a hard gale, cauſed all the hatches to be faſtened down, at which time five of the men were below, when all at once ſhe ſunk down to the bottom, and not one thing appeared till ſome time after, when the body of one of the men was drove aſhore. At low water ſeveral perſons went on board, and on opening the hold, found the five men ſitting upright, drowned. The occaſion of her ſinking was owing to her ſtarting a plank.

On a tomb-ſtone in Heyden church-yard, near Hull, in Yorkſhire, is the following inſcription: Here lies the body of William Sturt, of Patrington, buried May 18, 1685, aged 97 years. He had children by his firſt wife 28, by his ſecond 17, own father to 45, grandfather to 86, great grandfather to 97, great great grandfather to 23, in all 251.

Some letters from Barbados mention, that the Spaniſh governor of Cuba has prohibited the importation of Negroes from Africa, or the entrance of any Engliſh Guineymen into any of the ports of that iſland.

Charles-Town, in South-Carolina, February 4.

"My laſt acquainted you that M. l'Abadie, the governor of New-Orleans, was here, had delivered a good publick talk, and was giving preſents to the Chactahs and ſome other Indians, three years due: I promiſed to ſend you a copy of this talk, but have been diſappointed of it. Among the Chactahs there was not a man of the Engliſh party, tho' they came from no leſs than fifty-ſeven towns; thoſe all refuſed to come, tho' the whole nation was invited. The preſents delivered them were very conſiderable, amongſt them was a great number of guns, and near 6000 lb. of gun-powder and balls; of every other article they had in proportion: Immenſe promiſes were likewiſe made them; in particular that they ſhould be ſent for again in ſix months, to New-Orleans, to receive more conſiderable preſents there, if they behaved well; and they have all returned pretty well ſatisfied. Whatever may have been ſaid in public to the Indians, recommending that they ſhould look upon, and behave to the Engliſh and French as one people, it is certain that in private no pains nor arts have been wanting to withhold them from an alliance with us, by telling them, "That the Engliſh only wanted their lands, would give them nothing, uſe their women ill, and at laſt make ſlaves of the men;" and by inviting them all to ſettle on the weſtern banks of the Miſſiſippi, where they ſhould have lands and hunting-grounds far ſuperior to what they now poſſeſſed, and real friends about them. In ſhort, it is my opinion, that the French have ſome future proſpect in view, that cannot tend to our good, for they ſpare no direct or indirect means to gain and reſerve the friendſhip of every Indian tribe or nation. Some ſmall tribes that were ſettled around this place, and were very uſeful to the inhabitants, by killing deer, catching fiſh, &c. have in this manner been withdrawn to New-Orleans: An attempt of this ſort was made while Col. Robertſon was here, with a tribe that have a town of about 50 men 30 miles up this river, and were going to be carried off in French boats; but the colonel ſent for the headman, and gave him aſſurances, "That if they would remain on their lands, they ſhould have the utmoſt protection from the Engliſh; be always treated as their own children, and never be ſuffered to want any thing;" which ſeems to have fixed them.---The garriſon of fort Thoulouſe arrived here the 15th inſtant, accompanied by about 300 Indians, called by the French the Alibamous, and by our traders Stinking-Lingua, who are alſo come for preſents from the French, with whom they have always lived in friendſhip, though they never would fight againſt us: Before that garriſon quitted the fort they deſtroyed all the cannon, and the ſtores they could not bring away; after which, they ſay, they delivered the keys to the Wolf King, who immediately took poſſeſſion of it, and removed into it with his family: As there is no meſſage from him yet to put it into poſſeſſion of the Engliſh, and his intentions are not known, Col. Robertſon has determined not to ſend a garriſon thither, 'till the Indians aſk for one, which I am perſuaded they never will.---The command ſent to Tombighe fort arrived there in fifteen days, without meeting with the leaſt interruption, and the Chactahs have hitherto behaved in the moſt friendly manner. Major Forbes was here a few days ago, from Penſacola, and is returned. Major Loftus is under orders to proceed with the 22d regiment to the Ilinois, the 1ſt of January. The land on the Albahma (or Alibamous) is in general eſteemed as good as that on the Ilinois."

Feb. 11. Some inſinuations having been thrown out by the Creeks, that the Young-Warrior of Eſtatowih, was again inclined to go to war againſt us, and intimated, if their nation would begin, that he would join them, for, that the approaching ſpring the Engliſh intended to cut them all off, &c. &c. the return of an expreſs from Fort Prince George, Keehowee, brings his poſitive denial of thoſe charges, and as poſitive aſſurances of his fidelity. In a talk which he gave the 26th ult. he ſays, that he and his people were all well pleaſed with the good talks delivered at the late congreſs at Auguſta, and therefore he is the more ſurpriſed at what has been laid to his charge. That the Creeks are liars, and a moſt perfidious nation. That they have killed Cherokees as well as white people. That he burns with anger, whenever he hears them expreſs their contemptible opinion of the Engliſh, by ſaying, That they are all women, and they will treat them as no other wherever they ſhould meet them; by aſking, how they came to make war with the Cherokees? and, if there were any men amongſt them, why did they not reſent what they (the Creeks) had done. That he thought, we could not be ſtrangers to to the deſigns of the Creeks, by their behaviour at Auguſta, and being all of them armed with long knives and piſtols, with which he and his people hourly expected they would attempt to maſſacre both Engliſh and Cherokees. That they have ſent him a talk ſince the congreſs, deſiring that he will not reſent any injury that may be done to traders, but that he was, and always ſhould be, deaf to ſuch talks. That he had repeated invitations from the Creeks during the late war, to go and ſettle amongſt them, and that they have owed him a grudge ever ſince he refuſed. That he is very ready to aſſiſt in putting the ſeven murderers to death, mentioned in the Young-Twin's talk, but they are a very ſmall part of the rogues that have miſchief in their hearts, for he has certain information, that the whole nation has reſolved on a war with the Engliſh; that they deſign to way-lay all the rivers, and particularly the fords, all the way from St. Auguſtine to the head of Savannah river; and that they are cutting up all the ſkins of their winter's hunt for mockaſins to proceed upon the execution of their deſigns. He deſires, that the warriors who are to relieve the garriſon of Fort Prince George, may have a ſtrict caution to be on their guard, ſuſpecting they may be way-laid by the Creeks; ſays, he ſhall ſoon remove his people from Toogouloo to Eſtatowih; and concludes with the warmeſt profeſſions of friendſhip and fidelity.

Extract of a letter from Fort Boone, at Long-Canes, dated the 24th ult.

"Of the militia which the humanity of the Governor induced his Excellency to order this way, a company of about 50 men, commanded by Capt. Chriſtopher Rowe, arrived here the 24th inſtant, and rendered us all the ſervice in their power: About a fortnight ago, another company, of about 40 men, came within about 35 miles of this place, and inſtantly returned; and yeſterday a company of 28, commanded by Capt. Dick, arrived here from New Windſor, ſtaid about an hour, and returned homewards again. This is all the protection or aſſiſtance we have yet received from the Lower ſettlements, to whom we are to form a barrier againſt Indian incurſions: The conſequence I am afraid will be, that whenever the Indians renew their outrages in this quarter, the people will be diſheartened, and not being able to plant their next year's proviſion in any ſort of ſecurity, deſert their all here, and return to the Northern provinces, leaving a fine country open to the mercileſs ſavages, which 200 men, in pay, and under proper active officers, might cover, ſo as to prevent any future inroads. The ſettlements here being very wide from each other, the inhabitants have made a third fort, and though there are from 140 to 250 ſouls in each, yet the men are very few in compariſon of the women and children, and the duty they perform in ſcouting and getting proviſion (which they are obliged to impreſs, to keep the poor from ſtarving) very great.-----A party of 11, went out the 26th, meeting with tracks of Indians, and following them from one deſerted houſe to another, at laſt came upon a camp on the bank of Savannah river, which they ſurrounded, and were juſt going to fire, when they diſcovered them to be Chicaſahs, who had plundered all the ſaid deſerted houſes, and ſtolen 7 horſes. From upwards we hear, that 24 Creeks have juſt been at Tougouloo, the Young-Warrior's new ſettlement, and purchaſed ammunition of ſome traders there, which we daily expect to hear of their making uſe of hereabouts."

Feb. 18. The remains of the Acadians that were removed to this province in the year 1755, and who all went from hence for Cape Francois in November laſt, ſoon after their arrival there, had land allotted them at Cape Nicola in the Windward-Paſſage, and are ſettling at the Platform, where moſt Engliſh veſſels paſſing to and from Jamaica commonly call for water; but are by no means pleaſed, either with their reception or ſituation.

Among other advices from the Cape, we have the following, viz. That not a day paſſes without ſome Engliſh veſſels from the Northern colonies going in there, for water, &c. with which they are moſt kindly and readily ſupplied, eſpecially for two-inch plank, wanted for the fortifications. That about five weeks ago, two large ſhips from France arrived there, full of vagrants or convicts, who were immediately ſet to work upon the fortifications. That in every ſhip from France, ſince the concluſion of the peace, 20 or 30 ſoldiers arrive, and no leſs than 7000 are expected in a body, with a fleet. That there never was ſo much attention paid as at this time, to repair and ſtrengthen the old, and erect new works, throughout the French part of the iſland of Hiſpaniola; that to fortify every place effectually, no leſs than ſeven old experienced enginiers lately arrived there from France, who, about Chriſtmas, accompanied the governor in a man of war ſnow, to make a new ſurvey of the whole North coaſt, and lay out works; but that they ſeemed moſt particularly attentive to the fortifying of Cape Nicola mole and Samana, where the works laid out are very extenſive. And, that a ſhip called the Jenny, belonging to Maryland, was lately loſt going in there.

BOSTON, March 12.

Laſt Thurſday Night a little before Twelve o'Clock a Fire broke out in a Hatter's Shop at the South Part of the Town, but being timely diſcovered, was extinguiſhed without doing much Damage.

And Yeſterday Afternoon a Fire was diſcovered in a Barn wherein was a Quantity of Hay, at the North Part of the Town, occaſioned by ſome Sparks from a Chimney; but the Inhabitants being ſoon alarmed, extinguiſhed the ſame without doing much Damage.

Laſt Week a new born Infant was found dead in a Vault at the North Part of the Town; and a Woman named Jemima Mange, the ſuppoſed Mother, was taken up and committed to Goal, on ſuſpicion of being guilty of murdering it.

On Thurſday laſt the following ſorrowful Accident happened at a Ropewalk in this Town; a young Man named Nathan Millward, aſſiſting in making a large Cable, being at one of the Fore Hooks, and a little unguarded, by a Woollen Strap breaking, the whole Strain returned upon him, which forced the Hook out of his Hand, and ſtruck him violently in the Head, and fractured his Skull in ſuch a Manner, that he lay in a languiſhing Condition till next Day, and then died. He has left a ſorrowful Widow and two Children.

NEW-YORK, March 19.

The following is an Extract of a Letter of undoubted Credit from the D'Etroit, dated December 3, 1763.

"We have been lately very buſy in procuring Abundance of Wheat, Flour, Indian Corn, and Peas, from the Country; in which we have ſo far ſucceeded as not to be in Danger of being ſtarved out. The Approach of Major Wilkins's Party had very good Effect, the Enemy moved further off. It is ſaid Pondiac, and his Tribe, are gone to the Miſſiſippi; but we do not believe it: The French have been wonderfully civil this laſt Fortnight, being ignorant of the Return of the Troops, in which Major Gladwin does not think proper to undeceive them, leſt they ſhould bring the Indians upon us, who might harraſs us in our preſent Employ, that of bringing in Wood for the Garriſon, as we are obliged to fetch it a great Diſtance.

"The Wiondots of Sanduſky are much animated againſt us: They have been reinforced lately by many Villains from all the Nations concerned in the War; and they are the only Indians this Way that abound in Ammunition, the other Nations being much in Want of that Article. They likewiſe plant Abundance of Indian Corn, which they often ſell to other Nations that ſtand in Need of it: The Ottawa's, it is thought, muſt depend upon them for that Article next Spring."

PROCEEDINGS of the ASSEMBLY on the SUPPLY BILL.

Wedneſday, March 14, 1764, P. M.

THE Members appointed to wait on the Governor with the Bill for granting to His Majeſty the Sum of Fifty-five Thouſand Pounds, &c. reported they had delivered the ſame, according to Order, and that his Honour was pleaſed to ſay, he would take the ſaid Bill into immediate Conſideration, and give it all the Diſpatch in his Power.

March 19, 1764.

SIR,

THE Governor returns the Bill intituled, “ An Act “ for granting to His Majeſty the Sum of Fifty-five “ Thouſand Pounds,” &c. and commands me to acquaint the Houſe, that it is liable to the ſame Objections, which he made in his Meſſage of the Seventh of this Inſtant to the laſt Supply Bill, relative to the Taxation of the Proprietary located unimproved Lands and Lots, as muſt appear at firſt View, on comparing the Bill with the Decree of His late Majeſty. The Governor, therefore, moſt earneſtly recommends it to the Houſe to make the Bill conformable, in theſe Particulars, to the ſaid Decree, from the Terms of which he cannot, in Duty, deviate; after which he will readily paſs it into a Law.

March 19, 1764.

A verbal Meſſage to the GOVERNOR from the ASSEMBLY.

THE Houſe apprehend that they have, in the Supply Bill, fully complied with the Stipulations entered into by the Agents at the Council Board, relative to the Proprietary located unimproved Lands and Lots, and have expreſſed the Intention of the ſame in the plaineſt Terms. As the Governor thinks otherwiſe, the Houſe requeſt he would be pleaſed to explain to them what he takes to be the Intention of the ſaid Stipulations in that Reſpect; it being highly neceſſary that the Act ſhould be expreſſed in ſuch Terms, as that thoſe who are to execute it, ſhould clearly underſtand it.

March 20, 1764.

A verbal Meſſage from the GOVERNOR, delivered by the Secretary to the HOUSE.

IN Anſwer to the verbal Meſſage from the Houſe, of the laſt Evening, the Governor orders me to lay before the Houſe a Copy of the Second and Third Articles of the Decree of His late Majeſty in Council, referred to in his former Meſſage; which are as follow, viz.

2. “ That the located uncultivated Lands belonging “ to the Proprietaries, ſhall not be aſſeſſed higher “ than the loweſt Rate, at which any located uncultivated Lands belonging to the Inhabitants, “ ſhall be aſſeſſed.”
3. “ That all Lands not granted by the Proprietaries, within Boroughs and Towns, be deemed “ located uncultivated Lands, and rated accordingly, and not as Lots.”

The Governor further commands me to acquaint the Houſe, that the Agents for the Aſſembly ſtipulated, that the Houſe would frame a Bill in Conformity to the ſaid Order of the Council Board; and that he apprehends the Words made uſe of in the above Articles, to be ſo expreſs and certain, as to admit of no Doubt or Ambiguity, and to convey a Meaning very different from the Proviſions made reſpecting theſe Matters in the preſent Bill. But as the Seſſion hath been drawn out to ſuch an unuſual Length, that the Levies voted by the Aſſembly will be uſeleſs, unleſs they are raiſed immediately, and a Difference in Opinion, or Diſpute between him and the Houſe at this Time, with Regard to the Intention of the Agents in the ſaid Stipulations, would probably obſtruct His Majeſty's Service, and defeat the good Ends propoſed by the General, in the Aids he hath demanded of this Province, the Governor, to avoid theſe Miſchiefs, hopes the Houſe will be pleaſed to inſert in the Bill the above Clauſes, in the very Words of the Decree.

A verbal Meſſage from the ASSEMBLY to the GOVERNOR.

AS the Governor and Aſſembly differ in their Opinion of the Meaning of the Words contained in the Stipulations he mentions, it is very probable, if the ſame Terms only are uſed, the Commiſſioners and Aſſeſſors of the ſeveral Counties may differ likewiſe in their Opinion of the Meaning of thoſe Terms, and thence differ in the Modes of Taxation. And the Provincial Commiſſioners of Appeal may not know what to determine in the laſt Inſtance. It ſeems for that Reaſon neceſſary to uſe Terms more certain and explicit, though expreſſing the ſame Meaning, which the Houſe have accordingly done.----But, in order to come to a right Underſtanding with the Governor in this Matter, they requeſt he would be pleaſed to acquaint them, whether he underſtands the Meaning of the Stipulation, concerning the located uncultivated Lands, to be, That the beſt and moſt valuable of the Proprietaries Lands and Lots, ſhould be taxed no higher than the worſt and leaſt valuable of the Lands belonging to the People?----As the greateſt Part of the Troops are already raiſed, the Houſe do not conceive, that the Settling this important Point, ſo as to leave it clear, can occaſion any Delay prejudicial to His Majeſty's Service.

March 21, 1764.

A verbal Meſſage from the GOVERNOR to the ASSEMBLY, delivered by the Secretary.

THE Governor commands me to acquaint the Houſe, that he will not enter into any Diſpute with the Houſe about the Intent or Meaning of the Agents, in the Stipulations they made; ſince he is to be guided by the Royal Order, and not by the Intention of the Agents. The Lords of the Committee, when they framed the two Articles in their Report, a Copy of which was inſerted at large in the Meſſage of this Morning, and His late Majeſty, when he approved of that Report, moſt certainly underſtood the Force of the Words they made uſe of to convey their Ideas; if this is once admitted, the Governor is of Opinion, that the Engliſh Language does not afford Words more forcible, clear and explicit, than are contained in the Articles before mentioned, and conſequently, that any Amendments or Additions attempted to be made to them by the Houſe, will rather tend to perplex than explain the Royal Order; which induces him again moſt earneſtly to entreat the Houſe to inſert the very Terms of the ſaid Order in the Bill.

May it pleaſe your HONOUR,

THE Houſe, on a Review of the Meſſages that have paſſed between your Honour and them, concerning the Money Bill, beg Leave to declare, that they had the ſincereſt Deſire to comply with the Requiſitions of His Majeſty's General, and therefore immediately, at your Honour's Inſtance, voted the Number of Men required, and the Sum neceſſary to raiſe, cloathe and pay them; and are ſorry they ſhould be obliged to ſay, that the Delays and Difficulties they have met with in compleating a Bill to carry that Vote into Execution, have ariſen wholly from the intervening of Proprietary Intereſts and Inſtructions, which your Honour, who are “ no Stranger to the “ long Diſputes and Differences that unhappily ſubſiſted, “ for many Years, between the two Branches of the Legiſlature, on Bills of the like Nature,” muſt know were ever the great and ſole Obſtruction to His Majeſty's Service in this Province.

To prevent a Revival of thoſe Diſputes, the Houſe have, in the preſent Bill, complied fully, to the beſt of their Underſtanding, with the Opinion of the Lords of the Committee, approved by His late Majeſty, reſpecting our Supply Bills, and therefore had the greateſt Reaſon to hope that no Objection could now ariſe to its Paſſage.

But your Honour is pleaſed to refuſe your Aſſent to the Bill, unleſs in two of the ſix Alterations propoſed by their Lordſhips, the very Terms by them made uſe of in their Report are inſerted in the Bill, alledging that you cannot in Duty deviate from them.

Such a Reaſon for not paſſing this Bill appears the more extraordinary to us, as the ſix Articles in that Report are evidently Heads only of propoſed Amendments, and do not appear to be ever intended as formed Clauſes, the very Words of which were to be inſerted in our future Supply Bills.

For Inſtance, one is, “ That the real Eſtates to be taxed be defined with Preciſion, ſo as not to include the “ unſurveyed Waſte Lands belonging to the Proprietaries.”---Can it be thought that theſe Words ought to make a Part of the Bill?----Another is, “ That the Governor's Conſent and Approbation be made neceſſary “ to every Iſſue and Application of the Money to be raiſed “ by Virtue of ſuch Act.”----Another, “ That Provincial “ Commiſſioners be named, to hear and determine Appeals brought on the Part of the Inhabitants as well as “ of the Proprietaries.”---Another, “ That the Payments “ by the Tenants to the Proprietaries of their Rents, ſhall “ be according to the Terms of their reſpective Grants, “ as if ſuch Act had never been paſſed.”----All theſe appeared to us to be merely Heads of Proviſions to be made in the Bill, and the Proviſions are accordingly made, though in very different Words, but ſuch as fully and particularly expreſs the ſame Meaning.----Thus the laſt, “ That the Payments by the Tenants to the Proprietaries “ of their Rents, ſhall be according to the Terms of their “ reſpective Grants, as if ſuch Act had never been paſſed;” is provided for in the Clauſe that makes the Paper Money a legal Tender in all Payments whatſoever, by adding theſe Words, “ the Sterling Rents due, or to become due, “ to the Proprietaries of this Province only excepted;” which Words, we conceived, would effectually anſwer that Purpoſe.---And theſe Changes your Honour has not diſapproved. If the “ very Terms” of the Order in Council are ſo ſacred that they muſt be made uſe of, and no other, and your Honour cannot in Duty deviate from them, the Houſe are at a Loſs to account for your agreeing to all thoſe Alterations, and particularly to the latter, without the leaſt Objection.

Their Lordſhips Words relating to the Points now under Conſideration, are theſe,

“ That the located uncultivated Lands belonging to “ the Proprietaries, ſhall not be aſſeſſed higher than the “ loweſt Rate at which any located uncultivated Lands “ belonging to the Inhabitants ſhall be aſſeſſed.”----And, “ That all Lands, not granted by the Proprietaries within Boroughs and Towns, be deemed located uncultivated “ Lands, and rated accordingly, and not as Lots.

“ And be it further enacted and provided nevertheleſs, “ That the located uncultivated Lands belonging to the “ Proprietaries of this Province, ſhall not, by Virtue of “ this Act, be aſſeſſed higher than the loweſt Rate at “ which any located uncultivated Lands belonging to the “ Inhabitants thereof, under the ſame Circumſtances of “ of Situation, Kind and Quality, ſhall be aſſeſſed; and “ that all Lands not granted by the Proprietaries within “ Boroughs and Towns, be deemed located uncultivated “ Lands, and rated accordingly, any thing in this Act “ to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.”

We thought, may it pleaſe your Honour, that we had herein expreſſed the true Intention of thoſe two Articles, but you have been pleaſed to let us know that you think otherwiſe, and that in your Opinion “ the Words made “ uſe of in thoſe Articles, convey a Meaning very different from the Proviſions made reſpecting theſe Matters “ in the preſent Bill.”----We then, by a Meſſage, requeſted your Honour would be pleaſed to acquaint us what Meaning you conceive they do convey.----This you have refuſed.---We have then endeavoured to conjecture, from the former Tenor of Proprietary Meaſures, what Senſe your Honour might poſſibly be willing to underſtand them in, and by another Meſſage, after ſetting forth, that as your Honour and the Houſe differed in their Opinion of the Meaning of thoſe Articles, it was very probable the Commiſſioners and Aſſeſſors of the ſeveral Counties, who were to execute the Act, might, if the ſame Terms only were uſed, differ likewiſe in their Opinion, and thence differ in the Modes of Taxation, we requeſted you would be pleaſed to acquaint us whether you underſtood the Meaning to be, “ that the beſt and moſt valuable of the “ Proprietaries Lands and Lots ſhould be taxed no higher than the worſt and leaſt valuable of the Lands be“ longing to the People?”----This your Honour has been pleaſed neither to own, nor deny; but continue to inſiſt that the Words of thoſe Articles are ſo clear and explicit, that any Additions to them will rather tend to perplex than explain them; and therefore urge us again to put them, and no others, in the Bill.

We beg your Honour would be pleaſed to reflect for a Moment, how abſurd it would be for the two Branches of the Legiſlature to agree to paſs an Act in Terms which both of them have, in public Meſſages, declared beforehand that they underſtand very differently; and particularly how extreamly wrong in the Aſſembly, when the other Branch, the Executive, will not declare what it underſtands by thoſe Terms, but reſerves that till the Law ſhall come to be executed.

Under theſe Circumſtances 'tis impoſſible for us to uſe, in this Bill, the Terms unexplained which your Honour inſiſts upon.

We do therefore unanimouſly adhere to our Bill, and once more earneſtly requeſt your Honour would be pleaſed to paſs the ſame without further Delay, as His Majeſty's Service, and the preſent deplorable Circumſtances of the Frontiers, require its being carried into immediate Execution.

Signed by Order of the Houſe,

A MESSAGE from the GOVERNOR to the ASSEMBLY.

GENTLEMEN,

IN the preſent Situation of Affairs, when His Majeſty's Service, and the Defence and Protection of our Frontiers againſt the Indian Incurſions the enſuing Summer, require the raiſing and keeping up a Body of Troops to oppoſe our Enemies, and enable the General to carry on the offenſive Operations he has wiſely planned againſt them, it is not without inexpreſſible Concern I find, by your laſt Meſſage, that the Supply Bill muſt of Neceſſity be rejected, unleſs you will yet agree to inſert in it the two Clauſes of their Lordſhips Report, a Copy of which I laid before you in my Meſſage of Tueſday laſt. But I flatter myſelf, Gentlemen, that when the Subject Matter of the Diſpute between us, reſpecting the Bill, comes to be fairly ſtated and underſtood, none of the ill Conſequences which may enſue from the Failure of it, can juſtly be imputed to me.

I have already told you, that I was not unacquainted with the long and various Conteſts which were agitated between the legiſlative Branches here for ſeveral Years after the laſt War, nor to the Evils and Miſeries which were entailed on the Frontier Inhabitants, particularly by them; but I was alſo firmly perſuaded that, by the ſolemn Determination of the King and Council upon theſe Points, all future Aſſemblies would acquieſce therewith, and that all Controverſy about them was at an End. I could not therefore but be much ſurpriſed, when on receiving the firſt Supply Bill, which you preſented me, I found that it was not only, in my Opinion, contrary to thoſe Articles in the Royal Order which I have objected againſt the preſent Bill, but by ſubjecting the Money to be ſtruck, to the Draughts and Orders of the Aſſembly only, for defraying what they ſhould be pleaſed to certify were contingent Charges of the current Year, was contrary alſo to the Fourth Article in the ſaid Order, viz. “ That the Governor's Conſent be made neceſſary in every Iſſue and Ap“ plication of the public Money.” The Bill now before me you have, at my Inſtance, been pleaſed to amend in this laſt Particular, and you contend that you have complied with the Intent and Meaning of the Lords of the Council in the other two Articles, with regard to the Taxation of the Proprietary Eſtate. Could I concur with you in this Opinion, I ſhould with the greateſt Joy aſſent to a Bill, which I moſt ardently wiſh to forward, by every Means conſiſtent with my Duty. I know of no other certain Rule of judging of the Intentions of another, than by the plain Import of the Words made uſe of to convey them; and agreeable to this Rule, I am yet perſuaded that there needs nothing more than to ſet the Terms of the Report in Oppoſition to the Clauſe in the Bill, relative to the Taxation of the Proprietary located unimproved Lands and Lots, to demonſtrate to every unprejudiced Mind that they convey a Senſe and Meaning diametrically oppoſite one to the other.

After having again conſidered, with the utmoſt Care and Attention, the Words of the Second Article of the Decree, which are, that ſuch Lands ſhall not be aſſeſſed higher than the loweſt at which any belonging to the Inhabitants ſhal be aſſeſſed, it is ſtrange to me you can poſſibly conceive them to be ambiguous, or want Explanation.

The only Conſtruction I can put on them, or that they can bear, without torturing, is, that if Five, Ten, or Fifteen Pounds, is the loweſt, at which any ſuch Lands of the Inhabitants are aſſeſſed, none of the located uncultivated Lands of the Proprietaries ſhall be aſſeſſed higher. You in your Bill and Meſſages own that you conceive them in a different Light. Under this Contrariety in Sentiment, I have repeatedly propoſed and requeſted of you to inſert the very Words of theſe two Articles of the Decree in the Bill; not, as you inſinuate, becauſe I hold the Terms of the Decree ſacred, when by other Words you expreſs the Senſe and Meaning of the King and Council; but as it appears to me in this Caſe to be the only Expedient left to prevent the Loſs of this important Bill, at a Time when perhaps the Lives of many of our Fellow Subjects depend on the Succeſs of it. The Reaſon you aſſign for not coming into this Propoſition, leſt thoſe, who are to execute the Law, ſhould underſtand this Part of it differently, and vary in their Mode of Taxation, will appear to me groundleſs, ſo long as I continue my Opinion, with reſpect to the Clearneſs and Perſpicuity of the Terms uſed in their Lordſhips Report. Beſides, you will pleaſe to conſider, Gentlemen, that the Provincial Commiſſioners of Appeal, appointed in the Bill, are a ſtanding Board, and will ultimately have the Right of controuling the Acts of the Aſſeſſors, and of judging and ſettling any Diſputes of this Kind; and any ſuppoſed trifling Inconveniencies of this Nature, which I cannot think will ever happen, ought not to be put in Competition either with the Safety and Security of the Province, or the Blood of His Majeſty's brave Subjects, which may be ſpilt on the Frontiers, for Want of a Law to provide for their Protection and Defence.

I therefore once more return you the Bill, and moſt cordially entreat you to accede to the Meaſure of inſerting in it the Words of the two Articles before mentioned.

March 23, 1764. JOHN PENN.

May it pleaſe your HONOUR,

WE have conſidered your Honour's Meſſage of Yeſterday Afternoon, ſent down to us with our Supply Bill, and are extreamly concerned to find, that notwithſtanding His Majeſty's Service, and the preſent Situation of our Affairs, which you well deſcribe in the firſt Lines of the Meſſage, do ſo plainly mark the Utility and Neceſſity of paſſing that Bill, yet it muſt, you are pleaſed to ſay, be rejected.

We are ſenſible that your Honour did make to a former Bill the Objection you mention concerning the incidental Charges; but as the Houſe long ſince dropt that Bill, and out of Zeal for the Service broke through their Rules, and in the ſame Sitting prepared and preſented another Bill free from that Objection, we cannot conceive why it is repeated here, unleſs to ſwell in Appearance the Number of ſuppoſed Faults in the preſent Bill, with which it has nothing to do.

It obliges us now, however, to explain that Matter. The incidental Charges of the current Year are well known, and cannot be, as your Honour unkindly ſays, "every Thing that the Aſſembly ſhall pleaſe to certify to "be ſuch."-----The Sum they may amount to is not indeed ſo certain, varying a little in different Years; but was always, and muſt be ſmall, compared to the Sum granted in the Bill. The Courſe relating to them, even ſince the Order of Council, has been, for the Governor to requeſt an Eſtimate of the Particulars, and for the Houſe to give it as near as they could; and his paſſing the Bill, after receiving ſuch Eſtimate, was underſtood, both by him and the Houſe, to be his Conſent to that Application and thoſe Iſſues.----The Clauſe was inſerted in Compliance with that Practice, and your Honour might and would have had the Eſtimate as ſoon as it could be prepared, on the leaſt Intimation; but it ſeems you were better pleaſed with the Opportunity you ſuppoſed it gave you of making ſome Charge againſt us, as contravening the Fourth Article in the Order of Council, viz. "That "the Governor's Conſent and Approbation be made ne"ceſſary in every Iſſue and Application of the public "Money."----It was a Matter of ſo ſmall Conſequence, that we did not think it worth a Word of "Controverſy" at ſuch a Time, and therefore in the new Bill totally dropt the Clauſe, leaving thoſe incidental Charges to be provided for in ſome other Way we might afterwards agree upon; but your Honour chooſes to repeat the Accuſation, though now ſo evidently out of Time.

You are pleaſed to ſay, "you know of no other certain "Rule of judging of the Intentions of another, than by "the plain Import of the Words made uſe of to convey "them."----We beg Leave to point out to your Honour another Rule, and we think a better.----Laws and Ordinances, though compoſed by the wiſeſt Men, in Councils and Parliaments practiced in uſing the greateſt Clearneſs and Preciſion, are ſometimes found to contain Obſcurities and Uncertainties, which thoſe who are to execute them find difficult to clear and ſettle.---It is no Reflection on ſuch Bodies to ſay this.-- Every Thing human is ſubject to Imperfection.----But where the Words are, by Conſtruction, capable of two oppoſite Meanings, the one manifeſtly unjuſt and unequal, and the other perfectly conſiſtent with Juſtice and Equity, we conceive it a good Rule to judge that the Intention is with the latter.---Reſpect to the Body forming ſuch Law requires it---Common Candour demands it. Now in the preſent Caſe, the Intention of the Lords of the Council, in certain Words by them made uſe of, is to be judged of by your Honour and the Aſſembly, in order to form a Law agreeable to them. The Houſe, in the Bill, put a Conſtruction on them conformable to common Juſtice and Equity; your Honour was pleaſed to tell us, that the Words have a very different Meaning, but for ſome Time refuſed to ſay what you conceived that different Meaning to be, inſiſting on our uſing the very Words, without Explanation.----It was not till after three Meſſages, requeſting your Honour's Judgment of that Meaning, and ſeveral Days ſpent in our Endeavours, that we have been able to obtain it, and now that we have it, and conſider it, we do not wonder it ſhould be ſo long refuſed.---It is at length this, "That if "Five, Ten, or Fifteen Pounds, is the loweſt at which "any ſuch [i. e. located uncultivated] Lands of the In"habitants are aſſeſſed, none of the located uncultivated "Lands of the Proprietaries ſhall be aſſeſſed higher."---- Had we been fortunate enough to have uſed theſe Words in our Bill, we now have Reaſon to believe your Honour would not have referred us back to the "very Terms" of the Report, and inſiſted that any Amendments or Additions of ours would rather tend to perplex than explain thoſe Terms.---But your Honour muſt know, that many of the located uncultivated Lands belonging to the Inhabitants cannot, from the Nature of them, be in Juſtice aſſeſſed higher than Five Pounds per Hundred Acres, while the beſt of their Lands muſt, by the Law, be aſſeſſed at Fifteen Pounds: And can your Honour think it juſt, that becauſe the worſt and leaſt valuable of the Peoples Lands are rated at Five Pounds, the beſt and moſt valuable of the Proprietaries Lands ſhould be aſſeſſed no higher, when it is well known they ſelect and locate the beſt in every new Purchaſe, before the People are allowed to take up any? ---Your Honour will not ſay this, becauſe it is inconſiſtent with all our Notions of common Honeſty. The ſame Modeſty which ſo long prevented your Honour's confeſſing to us your Opinion of the Meaning of thoſe Words in the Order of Council, will prevent your inſiſting on that Meaning as a juſt one.---And for our Parts, we dare not put ſo iniquitous a Conſtruction on their Lordſhips Words---Reſpect and Decency forbid it.

Your Honour tells us that you cannot, "conſiſtent with your Duty," paſs this Bill.----If Duty to the Crown is meant, can your Honour ſeriouſly attempt to perſuade us that the Crown will be offended with a Proprietary Governor, for giving up an unjuſt Proprietary Claim to Partiality in Aſſeſſments in Favour of the Proprietaries private Eſtates, where no Point of Government, or Prerogative of the Crown, is concerned?-----But perhaps your Honour means Duty to the Proprietaries, as your honoured Father and Uncle; if ſo, we muſt allow that Duty well ſupported and enforced by your own private Intereſt. For ſuch a Partiality in Favour of Proprietary Eſtates, muſt not only be extremely agreeable to the preſent Poſſeſſors (from our Acquaintance with them for ſome Years paſt we ſpeak it) but, if it can be eſtabliſhed, will be highly advantageous to their Poſterity.

Your immediate Predeceſſor, Governor HAMILTON, aſſured a former Aſſembly, that, "nothing was further "from his Thoughts, than to deſire that the Proprieta"ries Eſtate ſhould be exempted from paying a propor"tionable Part of the Supplies for the current Service." And "that it was of the Eſſence of free Governments, "that the Money raiſed for public Services, ſhould be aſ"ſeſſed equally upon all Ranks and Conditions of Men; "otherwiſe the higheſt Injuſtice may be committed under "the Sanction of Law."-----There ſeems now ſome Reaſon to apprehend that theſe equitable Sentiments of that Gentleman might poſſibly have a Share in occaſioning his Removal; and we ſhall not wonder if your Honour, from a nearer Connection with the Proprietaries, has imbibed others extremely different.

The Inconvenience we mentioned that might ariſe, from the Aſſeſſors of different Counties differing in their Opinion of the Meaning of the Terms you require in the Bill, your Honour apprehends will be removed by Means of the Provincial Commiſſioners of Appeal; which we own we do not ſee. The Aſſeſſors of different Counties may not only fall on different Modes of Taxation, as they differently underſtand thoſe unexplained Terms, but ſhould Half the Aſſeſſors in one County underſtand them one Way, and the other Half the other, no Tax can be laid, or Money raiſed in that County, till they agree. The Provincial Commiſſioners of Appeal too, being nine, and five of them a Board, three of which can determine, may, being of different Opinions, give different Judgments at different Sittings, as often as three, the Majority of a Board, happen to be taken from thoſe who are of one or the other Opinion; beſides, though the Aſſeſſors below ſhould, from a right Underſtanding of the unexplained Words, act rightly, if the Provincial Commiſſioners, for want of Explanation, underſtand the Words in the wrong Senſe, they may, on Appeals, overthrow every right Aſſeſſment in the Province. In ſhort, we conceive that much Confuſion muſt ariſe from the uſing of Terms in a Law, that the Governor and the Aſſembly both declare they underſtand ſo differently. We may both be ſeparately clear in our Conceptions of their Meaning; but our differing ſo widely in thoſe Conceptions, ſeems to indicate at leaſt ſome Ambiguity or Obſcurity in the Terms; and we believe this is the firſt Time that ever the Enacting an Obſcurity in a Law was inſiſted upon, in hopes that ſome who were to execute it, might poſſibly ſee more clearly through it than the Legiſlators themſelves.

Your Honour is pleaſed to profeſs great Concern for the "Safety and Security of the Province, and for the Blood "of His Majeſty's brave Subjects, which may be ſpilt on "the Frontiers, for want of a Law to provide for their "Protection," and yet refuſe to paſs this Bill, unleſs groſs Partiality in Taxing is eſtabliſhed by it, in Favour of the Proprietary Eſtates.---You have twice told us, that "you "are not unacquainted with the long and various Con"teſts on this Subject, that were agitated between the le"giſlative Branches here, nor with the Evils and Miſeries "which were entailed on the Frontier Inhabitants" by thoſe Diſputes. As you muſt then know that thoſe Conteſts aroſe ſolely from Proprietary Injuſtice, you cannot be ignorant to whom all thoſe Evils and Miſeries ought to be imputed.----And, on a little further Reflection, will find, that you do really "flatter yourſelf," as you well expreſs it, when you imagine that "none of the ill Conſequences "which may enſue from the Failure of this Bill can juſt"ly be imputed to" you.----Your Honour has refuſed to paſs it at preſent, and our Affairs lay us under a Neceſſity of making an Adjournment; but we now acquaint you, that the Bill continues to lie ready for your Aſſent, and that we ſhall chearfully return on your Summons, whenever, upon more mature Conſideration, you ſhall find yourſelf willing to enact it into a Law. In the mean time, if any ill Conſequences enſue from the Delay, they will undoubtedly add to that Load of Obloquy and Guilt the Proprietary Family is already burthened with, and bring their Government (a Government which is always meanly making uſe of public Diſtreſs to extort ſomething from the People for its own private Advantage) into (if poſſible) ſtill greater Contempt.

For our own Parts, we conſider the Artifices now uſing, and the Steps taking to enflame the Minds of unthinking People, and excite Tumults againſt the Aſſembly, as concerted with a View to awe us into Proprietary Meaſures: But as theſe Seats were given us from no Solicitations of ours, and as we have no private Intereſts to ſerve by retaining them, nor any Pleaſure in the Poſſeſſion of them, we are very willing to quit them whenever our Conſtituents think proper to relieve us, by chooſing other Repreſentatives, which our annual Elections give them frequent Opportunities of doing. And for the preſent Safety of the Perſons and Properties of the good People of this Province, ſince the Governor will not paſs the equal Militia Bill we offered him, but upon Terms of great Addition to Proprietary Power, which we hope and are perſuaded no future Aſſembly will agree to, we muſt for the preſent depend on ourſelves and our Friends, and on ſuch Protection as the King's Troops can afford us, which we hope, by the Bleſſing of GOD, will be ſufficient to defend us, till His Majeſty ſhall graciouſly think fit to take this diſtracted Province under his immediate Care and Protection.

Signed by Order of the Houſe,

March 24, 1764. ISAAC NORRIS, Speaker.

Saturday, March 24, 1764. P. M.

THE Houſe taking into their Conſideration the preſent unhappy State of the public Affairs of this Province, came to the following Reſolutions, viz.

Reſolved, N. C. D. That it is the Opinion of this Houſe, that the Proprietaries of this Province, after having delegated their Powers of Government, can be juſtly or legally conſidered in no other Light than as private Owners of Property, without the leaſt Share or conſtitutional Power of Legiſlature whatſoever.

Reſolved, N. C. D. That the Obſtructions and Delays the Meaſures of the Crown have ſo repeatedly met with in this Province, during the late War, were ſolely owing to Proprietary Inſtructions, reſpecting the private Intereſt of the Proprietaries.

Reſolved, N. C. D. That all the Miſchiefs to the Province which the Governor mentions in his late Meſſages, as occaſioned by thoſe Obſtructions, are therefore chargeable wholly to the Proprietaries.

Reſolved, N. C. D. That it is high Preſumption in any Subject to interfere between the Crown and the People; and by his private Inſtructions to a Deputy-Governor, enforced by penal Bonds, prevent the Crown's Receiving, and the People's Granting, the Supplies required, and neceſſary for the Defence of this His Majeſty's Province.

Reſolved, N. C. D. That it has appeared fully to the Aſſemblies of this Province, on due Enquiry made, that no Injuſtice has been done the Proprietaries in the Taxation of their Eſtates, and that not the leaſt Cauſe has been given them to apprehend any ſuch Injuſtice.

Reſolved, N. C. D. That the Aſſemblies of Pennſylvania have in many Inſtances, and for a long Courſe of Years, ſhewn their affectionate Regard for the Proprietary Family; that Family and its Deputies having received, from the mere Benevolence of the People, within theſe laſt Forty Years, near Fourſcore Thouſand Pounds.

Reſolved, N. C. D. That in Return for this Goodneſs of the People of Pennſylvania, the preſent Proprietaries have, ever ſince their Acceſſion, been endeavouring to diminiſh and annihilate the Privileges granted by their honourable Father to encourage the Settlement of the Province.

Reſolved, N. C. D. That from an Attachment to Proprietary Intereſt, and to encreaſe the Revenue of their Deputies ariſing from Licences, the Benevolence of the People in granting the ſame has been groſly abuſed, and Public Houſes and Dram Shops have been encreaſed to an enormous Degree, to the great Corruption of Morals in the Populace, and Scandal of the Government; and that from the ſame Cauſes, reaſonable Bills preſented to Proprietary Governors, for reſtraining or preventing this Evil, have been from time to time refuſed.

Reſolved, N. C. D. That after Indian Purchaſes made by the Proprietaries, their cauſing to be located and ſurveyed the beſt Tracts of Land for themſelves and their Dependants, to lie waſte in great Quantities for a future Market, is the Cauſe that our Frontiers are ſo thinly and ſcatteringly ſettled, whereby the poor Inhabitants there have been rendered leſs able to defend themſelves, and became a more eaſy Prey to the ſmall ſkulking Parties of the Enemy.

Reſolved N. C. D. That the Proprietaries having a Monopoly of the Lands of this Province, has enabled them to hold up the vacant unlocated Lands at exorbitant Prices, and the more as they pay no Quitrent but a ſmall Acknowledgment only to the Crown, pay no Taxes for thoſe Lands, and are under no Obligation of ſettling them in any limited Time.

Reſolved, N. C. D. That their exorbitant Demands in the Price of Lands, have driven many Thouſands of Families out of this Province into Maryland, Virginia, North and South-Carolina, where Lands are to be had reaſonably; the Frontiers of all thoſe Provinces being chiefly ſettled with People from Pennſylvania, who likewiſe carried away with them great Sums of Money, and thereby this Province has been doubly weakened, in the Loſs of People to defend it, and of Subſtance and Improvements taxable towards its Defence.

Reſolved, N. C. D. That it was therefore the more unreaſonable in the Proprietaries, to contend, as they have done, firſt that they ſhould not be taxed at all; then that their Quitrents ſhould not be taxed; then that their located uncultivated Lands ſhould be exempted; and put the Province to great Expence in getting thoſe Points decided againſt them at home; while their Eſtate was equally to be defended with others, and the Province, on whom they would throw the Burthen, was at the ſame time ſo greatly weakened by Proprietary Avarice only.

Reſolved, N. C. D. That the preſent Proprietary Demand of having the beſt and moſt valuable of their located uncultivated Lands rated and aſſeſſed no higher than the worſt and leaſt valuable of the located uncultivated Lands belonging to the Inhabitants, is equally unreaſonable and unjuſt with any of their former Claims.

Reſolved, N. C. D. That the Proprietaries taking Advantage of Times of Public Calamity, to extort Privileges from the People, or enforce Claims againſt them, with the Knife of Savages at their Throat, not permitting them to raiſe Money for their Defence, unleſs the Proprietary arbitrary Will and Pleaſure is complied with, is a Practice diſhonourable, unjuſt, tyrannical and inhuman.

Reſolved, N. C. D. That the Proprietaries contending for the Power of appointing Judges, during their Pleaſure, who are to determine in all Cauſes between the Proprietaries and their Tenants the Inhabitants of the Province, is unjuſt, renders the Liberties and Properties of the Subject precarious and dependent on the Proprietary Will and Pleaſure, and is by no Colour of Reaſon ſupportable.

Reſolved, N. C. D. That the bad Light this Province unhappily ſtands in with our gracious Sovereign and His Miniſters, has been owing to Proprietary Miſrepreſentations and Calumnies.

Reſolved, N. C. D. That it is the Opinion of this Houſe, that the late Militia Bill offered to the Governor, was equal and juſt with regard to the Freemen of the Province, and ſufficient for all good Purpoſes. And that the ſole Appointment of the Officers, inſiſted on by the Governor, however willing the Houſe might be to comply with the ſame under a Royal Government, would be an Addition to the Proprietary Power, that by no Means can be ſafely truſted by the People in their Hands.

Reſolved, N. C. D. That the Fines propoſed by the Governor for Offences in the Militia, are enormouſly high, and calculated to enſlave the good People of this Province.

Reſolved, N. C. D. That the Power inſiſted on by the Governor, of marching any Number of the Militia to any Part of the Province, and keeping them there during any time, at Pleaſure, without the Advice and Conſent of the Commiſſioners, who are to pay them, is a Power that may be uſed ſo as greatly and unneceſſarily to harraſs the Freemen of the Province, and cannot ſafely be truſted in the Hands of a Proprietary Governor.

Reſolved, N. C. D. That Courts-martial propoſed in the Governor's Amendments to the Militia Bill, to be held by Officers of the ſole Appointment of a Proprietary Governor, with Power of Life and Death over the Inhabitants of the Province, may be uſed greatly to their Prejudice, as a deſtructive Engine of Proprietary Power.

Reſolved, N. C. D. That the Houſe, in the preſent Supply Bill, from a dutiful Reſpect to the Judgment of their Lordſhips of the Privy Council, and an earneſt Deſire of promoting His Majeſty's Meaſures, wiſely concerted for the Protection of this Province, have fully complied with the ſame. And that the Senſe in which ſome of the Articles of their Lordſhips Report is underſtood and explained by the Governor, is inconſiſtent with Reaſon and Juſtice, and what therefore their Lordſhips cannot be ſuppoſed ever to have meant or intended.

Reſolved, N. C. D. That it is the Opinion of this Houſe, that the Governor's Rejecting the ſaid Bill does not ariſe from its not being conformable to that Report, but becauſe it is not formed agreeable to Proprietary Inſtructions.

Reſolved, N. C. D. That the Houſe having fully complied with their Duty to His Majeſty, and the good People of this Province, in offering an equitable Supply-Bill to the Governor for his Aſſent, all the Diſtreſſes and Miſchiefs that ſhall happen on the Failure of the ſaid Bill, are juſtly imputable to an undue Influence of the Proprietary Intereſt and Inſtructions on the Governor.

Reſolved, N. C. D. That the ſole executive Powers of Government, being in the Hands of the Proprietaries, together with the very extenſive and growing Power ariſing naturally from their vaſt and daily increaſing Property, muſt in future times, according to the natural Courſe of human Affairs, render them abſolute, and become as dangerous to the Prerogatives and Government of the Crown, as to the Liberties of the People.

Reſolved, N. C. D. That it is therefore the Opinion of this Houſe, that the Powers of Government ought in all good Policy to be ſeparated from the Power attending that immenſe Property, and lodged, where only it can be properly and ſafely lodged, in the Hands of the Crown.

And, as all Hope of any Degree of Happineſs under the Proprietary Government, is, in our Opinion, now at an End, Reſolved, N. C. D. That this Houſe will adjourn, in order to conſult their Conſtituents, whether an humble Addreſs ſhould be drawn up, and tranſmitted to His Majeſty, praying that he would be graciouſly pleaſed to take the People of this Province under His immediate Protection and Government; by completing the Agreement heretofore made with the firſt Proprietor for the Sale of the Government to the Crown, or otherwiſe as to His Wiſdom and Goodneſs ſhall ſeem meet.

Ordered, That the foregoing Reſolves be made public.

NEW-YORK, March 26.

Yeſterday Afternoon came to Town, under a proper Guard, Fourteen of the Indians lately taken by the Party ſent out by Sir William Johnſon, as lately mentioned in our Paper;---They were as properly taken Care of by being lodged, and cloſely confined in ſeparate Apartments in our New Goal, with Iron (inſtead of Leather) Mocaſins at their Heels; at which they gave a very ſneering and inſulting Caſt of the Features---The moſt famous Capt. Bull (Tidyuſcung's Son) is one among the Tribe of Yellow Boys. He has confeſſed the killing and ſcalping Abundance of our back Inhabitants.

Laſt week Mr. Thomas Brunton, his Wife, and three or four more of his Family, in this City, were like to have been poiſoned by eating the Root of Poake inſtead of Horſe Raddiſh; but by having immediate Recourſe to a Phyſician, they are now all recovered.

PHILADELPHIA, March 29.

On Saturday laſt the GENERAL ASSEMBLY of this Province adjourned to the Fourteenth of May next.

And the next Day his Honour the GOVERNOR ſet out for New-Caſtle, to meet the ASSEMBLY of the Three Lower Counties there.

An ACT for the Payment of Ten Thouſand, Nine Hundred and Forty-ſeven Pounds Sterling, in certain Proportions to ſeveral Colonies in America.

An ACT for preventing Tumults and riotous Aſſemblies, and for the more ſpeedy and effectual Puniſhment of the Rioters.

A Supplement to the ACT intituled, "An Act for taking "Lands in Execution for the Payment of Debts," and for confirming Partitions in ſeveral Inſtances heretofore made.

An ACT for the Relief of Samuel Wallis, a Priſoner in the Goal of Philadelphia, with reſpect to the Impriſonment of his Perſon.

A Supplement to the ACT intituled, "An Act for the better ſettling Inteſtates Eſtates," and for repealing one other Act of General Aſſembly of this Province intituled, "An Act for "amending the Laws relating to the Partition and Diſtribution "of Inteſtates Eſtates."

The following is the Subſtance of ſome Advices received from Carliſle ſince our laſt, viz. "That on Monday, the Nineteenth Inſtant, the Indians carried off five of our People from within nine Miles of Shippenſburgh, and ſhot one Man through the Body: That the Number of the Enemy was not certainly known, but Eleven were ſeen at the Houſe the People were taken from, ſaid to be one Adam Sims's: That about 100 Men went immediately out in Purſuit of the Savages, and had returned without overtaking them, but that a Party of 30 Men, was ſtill after them from the Path Valley: That the Houſes of John Stewart, Adam Sims, James M'Cammon, William Baird, James Kelly, Stephen Caldwell, and John Boyd, were burnt-----And it is ſaid that all thoſe People had threſhed out their Grain, and put it up in their Houſes, in order to ſend further down among the Inhabitants, in caſe of Danger, but was all loſt.----The Perſon that brought the above Intelligence to Carliſle, we are informed, had ſeven Shot fired at him, one of which lodged in his Horſe's Shoulder."

Extract of a Letter from New-York, March 19.

"By the Albany Poſt we received a Copy of the following Paragraph of a Letter from Sir William Johnſon, dated the Eleventh Inſtant. "This Moment I received an Account by Ex"preſs from Aghguaga, of another Party of mine taking three "of the Enemy Priſoners, and one Scalp; a Fifth made his "Eſcape; they were going to War."

RESOLVES of ASSEMBLY being ſhort Reſolutions, formed after Debate and full Conſideration of any particular Matter, they are generally very conciſe, and ſeldom contain the Reaſons at large upon which they are founded; and although they are always ſo full and expreſſive, as to be clearly underſtood by thoſe who have attended to the Subject, yet, to enable others rightly to comprehend their Meaning, an explanatory Account of the Facts ſeems neceſſary. It is with this View the following Remarks are ſubmitted to the Conſideration of the Publick.

Remarks on Reſolve the Firſt. As this Reſolve is the firſt in Order, ſo it is the moſt important, and is intended to point out the deepeſt Wound which has been made, by an undue Attachment to Proprietary Intereſt, in the original Conſtitution of this Government. By the Royal Grant, "free, full and abſolute Power," is given to the Proprietary "Lieutenants" and Governors, "to ordain, make, and enact Laws, for the Raiſing of Money, &c. according to "their beſt Diſcretion, with the Advice, Conſent and Approbation of the Freemen of the Country, or of their De- "legates and Deputies." The Powers of Legiſlature being thus fully granted by the Crown, to the Governor for the Time being, and the Peoples Repreſentatives, 'tis evident the Proprietaries can have no Conſtitutional Share in Legiſlation, or Right to give Inſtructions to their Governor, whereby his "Diſcretion" muſt be totally deſtroyed. And therefore all ſuch Inſtructions are a manifeſt Violation of the Royal Favour to the good People of this Province, and a moſt dangerous Invaſion on the Rights of the Subject. They not only deſtroy the Exerciſe of Judgment in the Governor, but render the Repreſentative Body of the People mere Cyphers in the Conſtitution. And vain is it for the People to ſend their Delegates to the Seat of Repreſentation, as all they can do when met, is to give up their Freedom and Exerciſe of Judgment, betray thoſe very Rights they were ſent to preſerve, and ſervilely ſubmit to Proprietary Will and Pleaſure. Much better will it be for the Inhabitants of Pennſylvania to inveſt the Proprietaries with abſolute Power at once, permit them to ordain and enact Laws at Three Thouſand Miles Diſtance, and only tranſmit them here for Publication and Execution. For whoſe Intereſt they will in that Caſe be calculated, and of what Spirit they will partake, modern Meaſures have fully demonſtrated.

Remark on the Second and Third Reſolves. The firſt Attempt to enforce this miſchievous Claim, happened about Fifty Years paſt, when William Penn, in Governor Evans's Commiſſion, inſerted a Clauſe, reſerving "to himſelf and "his Heirs, their final Aſſent to the Laws" which ſhould be paſſed; and thus aſſumed the Royal Power, which by the original Charter was reſerved to the Crown. How evidently does this demonſtrate, that Men of the faireſt Characters are not to be truſted, when under the Influence of private Intereſt. A virtuous Oppoſition, however, both in the Proprietary Council, and Aſſembly, repelled this Invaſion of their Rights, and the Reſervation was declared illegal and void. And from this Time Proprietary Inſtructions never appeared, till in the Beginning of the late War. A Time when the Frontiers were bleeding in every Quarter, and the unhappy Inhabitants reduced to every Kind of Miſery and Diſtreſs that the deepeſt Want, and the moſt relentleſs Barbarities of a ſavage Enemy could deviſe and inflict. This it ſeems was thought the moſt convenient Time to enforce thoſe Claims, and reduce the People to a Subjection to them. And certainly a Time like this was neceſſary to their Succeſs. For, upon their being laid before the Aſſembly, they plainly appeared to be formed ſolely with a View to increaſe the immenſe Wealth of the Proprietaries, and to oblige the People to bear their Burthens; and were found equally regardleſs of the Orders of the Crown, as of the Good and Safety of the diſtreſſed Inhabitants.

Influenced by theſe illegal Inſtructions, what unjuſt Claims have the Governors of this Province made in Favour of their Principals! They firſt inſiſted that the Proprietaries ſhould not be taxed at all, although their Property was to receive equal Protection from it; then that their Quitrents ſhould not be rated; next that their located and uncultivated Lands ſhould be exempted; and laſtly, that the Bills of Credit, iſſued as well for the Protection of their Property as that of the Inhabitants, ſhould not be a Tender in the Payment of their Rents, contrary to all Juſtice and good Conſcience. The Aſſembly, conſiſtent with that Duty they indiſpenſably owed to their Conſtituents, could not agree to theſe unjuſt Demands. This created Diſputes; thoſe Diſputes created Delays, which greatly obſtructed His Majeſty's Meaſures; and whether the Proprietary Pretenſions, or the Aſſembly's Oppoſition, were moſt juſt and well founded, is ſubmitted to the Candid and Impartial.

Reſolve the Fourth. It is certainly an high Preſumption in the Proprietaries, to give Inſtructions inconſiſtent with the Royal Grant; to take Bonds to enforce a ſtrict Execution of them, and to adhere to them without the leaſt Abatement, when His Majeſty's Subjects are in the greateſt Danger and Diſtreſs from the Incurſions of a ſavage Enemy; and eſpecially, by thoſe Inſtructions, to delay and prevent thoſe Aids His Majeſty demands of this Province, for the Preſervation of his Colonies, and the Safety of his People.

Reſolve the Fifth. In the Year One Thouſand Seven Hundred and Sixty-one, an Enquiry was made, by Order of Aſſembly, into the State of the Provincial Taxes. And it appeared that the Proprietaries whole Eſtate paid no more than Five Hundred Sixty-ſix Pounds, Four Shillings and Ten-pence, when the Tax of one of the Members amounted to more than One Third of that Sum, though not poſſeſſed of a One-fiftieth Part of the Property owned by them; although it was aſſerted before the Privy Council, in a Debate on that very Bill by which the Tax was laid, that the Proprietaries would be obliged to pay more than all the People of Pennſylvania together.

Reſolve the Sixth. By Contract with the firſt Adventurers, the Quitrents were ſettled, as the certain Support of the Government, as is the Caſe in thoſe Colonies immediately under the King. On this Income the Governor was ſupported many Years. When the Proprietor returned to England, he had Occaſion for thoſe Rents to ſupport his Family there; to which Purpoſe, and to diſtreſs the Province, they have been ever ſince carefully applied. Upon this Miſapplication of the firſt Revenues of the Government, the Aſſembly were at that Time, by the moſt artful Management, and undue Influence, prevailed on to grant the Monies ariſing by Tavern Licences to ſupport his Deputy. The Monies received from this Source, and the Sums given to the Governors for Forty Years paſt, will amount to more than the Sum mentioned in the Reſolve.

Reſolve the Seventh, appears to be juſt, from many of the other Reſolves.

Reſolve the Eighth. It is notorious, the Number of Taverns, Ale-houſes and Dram-ſhops, have encreaſed beyond all Meaſure or Neceſſity. That they are placed ſo near to each other, that they ruin one another; and Two Thirds of them are not merely uſeleſs, but are become a Peſt to Society. There are very few of them that are able to provide the neceſſary Conveniences for entertaining Travellers, or accommodating the People either in Country or City; and this is entirely owing to that weak Policy in a former Aſſembly, of making it the Intereſt of a Governor to encourage and promote Immorality and Vice among the People. Many Bills have been preſented to the late Governors, to leſſen the Number, and to regulate thoſe Nurſeries of Idleneſs and Debauchery, but without Succeſs. From whence it ſeems evident, that ſo long as the Proprietaries are intereſted in our Ruin, ruined we muſt be: For no Deputy will dare to regulate this Miſchief, becauſe it will leſſen the Revenue; nor accept a Compenſation for this Revenue, as it will affect his Succeſſor; nor even accept a greater Annuity, becauſe it may, in Time, encreaſe to an higher Sum.

Reſolve the Ninth. The purchaſing or taking up large Tracts of Land on the Frontiers, to lay by for a future Market, muſt prevent a compact Settlement of the People, render them leſs defenſible, and of Courſe encreaſe the Taxes neceſſary for their Protection.

Reſolve Tenth and Eleventh. In Virginia and Carolina the People pay no Purchaſe Money for their Lands, and in the former only Two Shillings, and in the latter Four Shillings and Two-pence Sterling Quit-rent per Hundred Acres. In Pennſylvania the Proprietaries Waſte Lands are ſold for Fifteen Pounds Ten Shillings per Hundred Acres; their Manor Lands from Fifty to Sixty times that Value, with an annual Quit-rent reſerved of Four Shillings and Two-pence Sterling per Hundred Acres. This exorbitant Price, with the great Difficulty of obtaining Juſtice at the Land Office, and the continued public Diſputes, occaſioned by Proprietary Exactions and Inſtructions, have driven a great Number of wealthy Settlers into the Southern Colonies.

Reſolves Twelve, Thirteen, Fourteen and Fifteen, being fully explained by what is ſaid before, and in the Aſſembly's Meſſages, they can need no further Explanation.

Reſolve the Sixteenth. The People of our Mother Country, under the immediate Government of a Sovereign who had little private Intereſt in the Kingdom to influence him, have thought that they had no Security in their Lives, Liberties and Properties, while the Judges of the ſeveral Courts held their Commiſſions during the Pleaſure of the Crown. If they were right, how much more precarious and inſecure are thoſe invaluable Bleſſings in this Province, where ſo great and unjuſt an Attachment to the Intereſt of the Proprietaries is diſcovered, who are not only conſulted in the Nomination of the Judges, but can, and often have, from Reaſons of Policy only, removed them at their Pleaſure? The Time may come, when the People of Pennſylvania may experience the arbitrary Policy of a Richard the Second, and a James the Second, and the unjuſt and cruel Determinations of the ſervile Belknap, and the blood-thirſty Jeffries.

Reſolve the Seventeenth. Nothing was too unjuſt, nothing too diſhoneſt and falſe to be alledged againſt the Aſſembly and People of Pennſylvania, in the late Pleadings before their Lordſhips of the Privy Council, and we all know by whom the Pleaders were inſtructed. The Pleadings themſelves having been taken in Short Hand, will ſoon be publiſhed, and fully demonſtrate the Truth of this Reſolve.

Reſolve the Nineteenth. However ſafe it may be to entruſt an immediate Governor under the Crown with the Nomination of Militia Officers, who has no private Intereſt or Schemes of his own to promote, it certainly never can be ſafe to commit that Power into the Hands of a Deputy of the Proprietaries, bound by penal Obligations to obey Inſtructions wholly calculated to promote their private Intereſt. If we may judge from what we have ſeen, they would, no doubt, commiſſion none but thoſe who would implicitly obey their Orders, and purſue their Schemes for enſlaving the People. This would create a vaſt Number of new Relations and Dependencies in the Government, all under the Controul of the Proprietaries and their Governors, who holding their Offices during their Pleaſure, would no doubt conform to that Pleaſure. The Officers would influence the private Men, and the whole would influence our Elections in Favour of the Proprietary Syſtem, and by theſe Means render their Will the ſole Rule, in both the Executive and Legiſlative Parts of Government.

Reſolve Twenty, Twenty-one and Twenty-two. Theſe Reſolves on the propoſed Amendments to the Militia Bill, are ſo full and eaſily underſtood, that they carry Conviction with them, upon the leaſt Attention.

Reſolve the Twenty-third is fully explained by the Meſſages between the Governor and Aſſembly, lately publiſhed.

Reſolve the Twenty-fourth. No ſooner did the Proprietaries obtain the Opinion of our Superiors, that the Bills of Credit ſhould not be a Tender in the Payment of their Rents, than they laid a new Scheme for putting their Purchaſe Money, and other Contracts, under the ſame Circumſtances, that thereby they might not, in common with the People of this Province, ſuffer by a Depreciation, in caſe it ſhould happen, though in common with the People they reaped all the Advantages of thoſe Bills, and though the Protection of their Eſtates, in common with the Peoples, rendered the emitting them neceſſary. They accordingly gave Orders to their Commiſſioners of Property, to make their future Contracts for the Sale of Lands in Sterling; and by their Inſtructions to their Governor, poſitively forbid him to paſs any Supply Bill, unleſs thoſe Contracts are alſo exempted from being diſcharged by the ſaid Bills. This ſeems, in the Opinion of the Houſe, to have been one of the Cauſes of the Failure of the Supply Bill. To which may be added, that by the Bill, had it paſſed, the Proprietary Agents would be obliged to give an honeſt Account of their Eſtates, under a Penalty of Four-fold the Tax for all Property by them wittingly concealed. And when we conſider the many Inſtances of the moſt unjuſt Claims of Exemption from Taxes by the Proprietaries, this alone will appear an Objection likely to be ſtrong enough with their Deputy to reject the Bill, the Houſe having complied fully with the Stipulations their Agents had entered into before the Council.

Reſolve the Twenty fifth. Power, when ſeparate from great Property, and properly reſtrained by ſalutary Laws, is ſo far from being prejudicial to Society, that it cannot well exiſt or continue without it. But Power united with great Wealth, is all that is neceſſary to render its Poſſeſſor abſolute, and every thing, under him, at his own Diſpoſal. Great Riches alone, ſays a late Writer, in a private Perſon, are as dangerous to the Prerogatives of the Crown as to the Rights of the Subject. It enables him to form a great Number of Dependants, much greater than is conſiſtent with the Safety of either. They place the Subject too near a Level with his Sovereign. They form in the Mind ambitious Deſigns, and not only give the Hope, but create the Power, of carrying them into Execution. And if this be the Caſe of great Wealth alone, how much more muſt the Addition of all the Powers of Government in the ſame Perſons (Three Thouſand Miles diſtant from the Eye of the Sovereign) render the Rights of the Crown and the Privileges of the People precarious, and at the Diſpoſal of the Proprietaries? Look through all Hiſtory, and the Experience of Ages will demonſtrate this Truth.

Reſolve the Twenty ſixth. The Reaſon of this Reſolve is fully ſhewn in the Explanation of the laſt.

Reſolve the laſt. By this Reſolve it appears all Hopes of ſerving the People, or the leaſt Degree of Happineſs, under a Proprietary Government, are wholly given up by the Aſſembly. And that, in their Opinion, no Aſylum from arbitrary Power and its miſchievous Effects remains, but that of a Change of Government. And nothing is now left for the People to determine, but to inform their Repreſentatives, whether they had rather ſubmit to the moſt unjuſt Proprietary Inſtructions, ſubverſive, and indeed effectually deſtructive, of their eſſential Privileges, and of Courſe become Slaves to the uſurped and arbitrary Power of private Subjects; or implore the immediate Protection of a Sovereign, juſtly celebrated for his tender Regard to the conſtitutional Rights of Engliſhmen.
